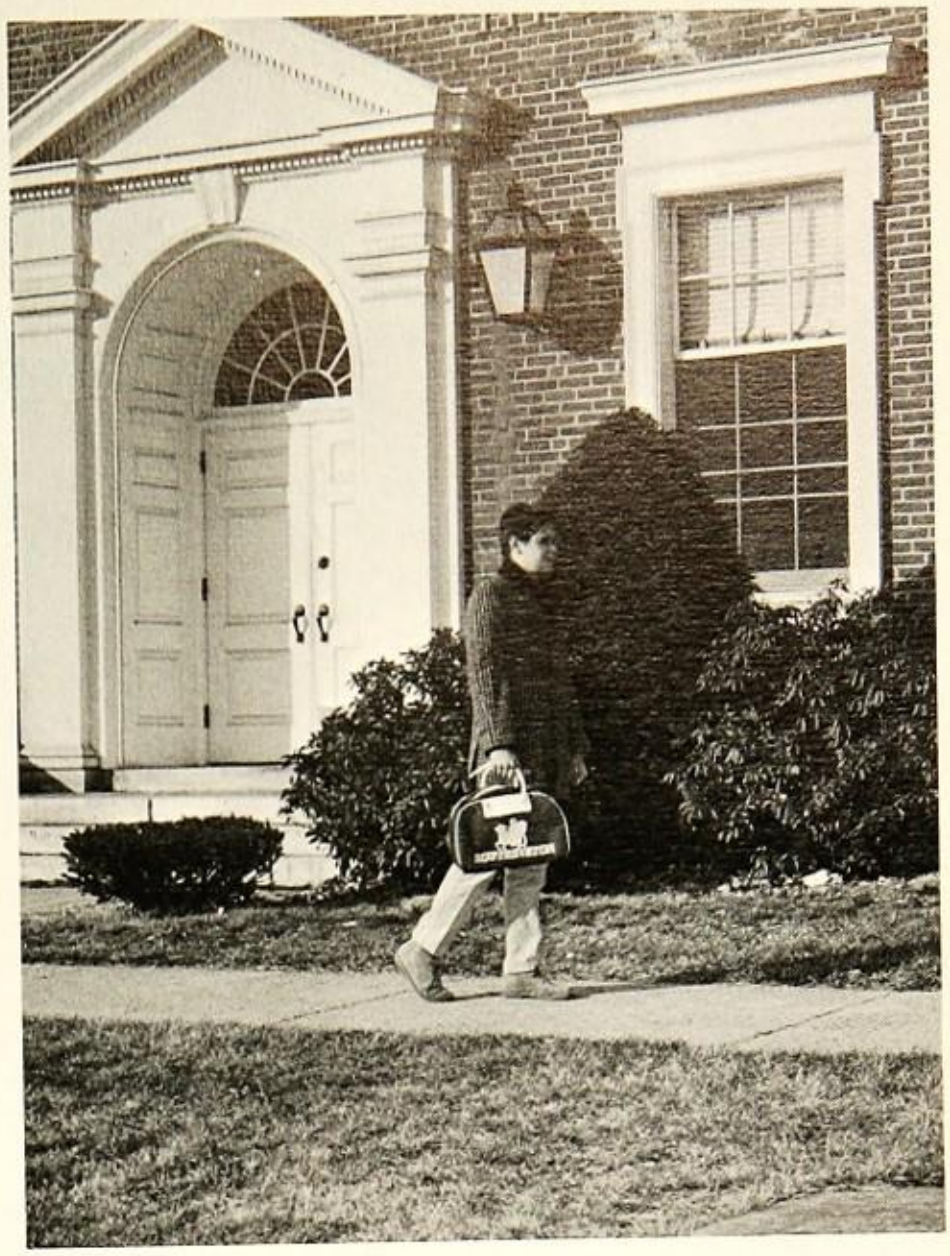
"Students face many problems in their academic work, but Nick Arena seems to have conquered this one."

The Spirit In Sports . . .

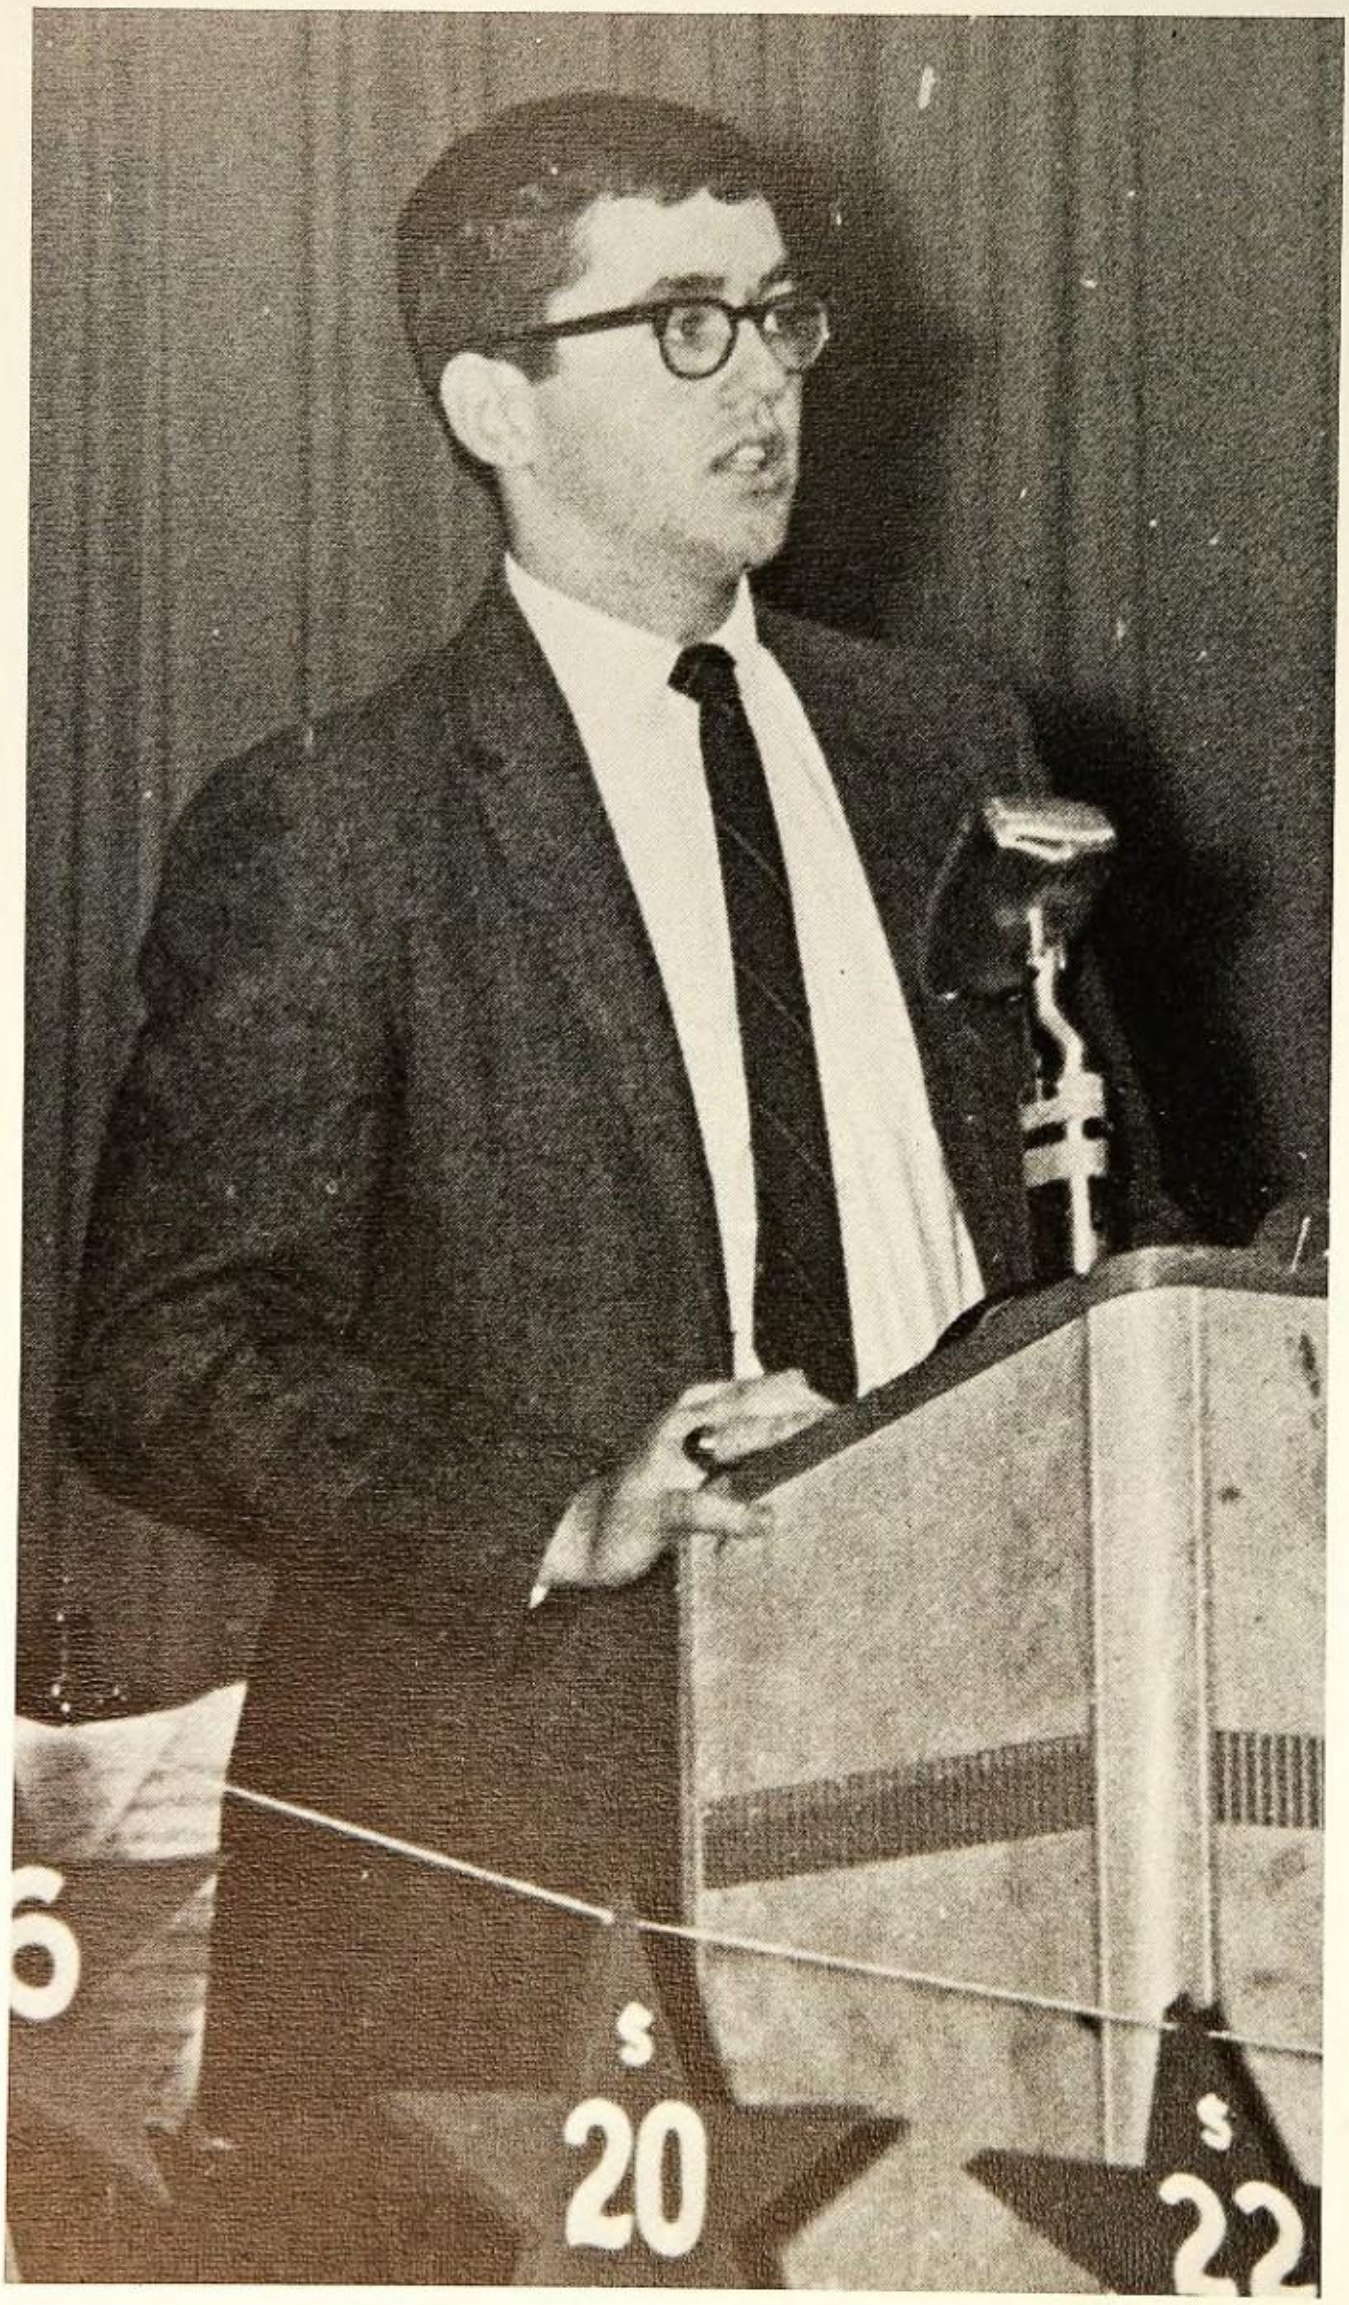
"Mark Mattas watches the game with anxiety as students in the background cheer the team on."



"Students may often be seen leaving school in the late afternoon after a hard day's practice."

"The cheerleading squad is a true sign of Southington High's overpowering spirit."

The Spirit In Student Life . . .



"School dances provide entertainment for our Southington High students."

"Bob Smith opens all student assemblies."

"Athletic assemblies reflect the students' spirit in their school."

...This Spirit is You...

The most important part in any school is you. Whether you be senior or underclassman, whether you be administrator or faculty member, whether the honors you win are academic or athletic – it is your behavior, your attitude, your participation, your effort and support which make any school. And it is you who have made Southington High the commendable school it is.

Yes, you are the prime motivating force behind this fine school – your success is ours; our success is yours – and we extend our thanks to you in this, your yearbook.

Dedication To Mr. Giallello
. . . From The Class of 1966

Our life here at Southington High has come to a close. We have experienced great joy and immense sorrow. You, Mr. Giallello, have shared with us all these triumphs and disappointments. With deep admiration and appreciation, we therefore dedicate this chronicle, our dearest possession, to you, as a symbol for all that you have done.

You were more than an advisor to us — you were a friend. You gave us guidance when it was most needed; you gave us encouragement when all seemed lost; but most important, Mr. Giallello you gave us yourself. You were there to help us at our most trying times; sacrificing all you had to give.

We cannot write all that you have done for us — the list is too great. We cannot begin to thank you for all that you have given us. We can only tell you Mr. Giallello, that we will always hold the memory of you warm in our hearts.

"Seniors have a friend in their advisor."

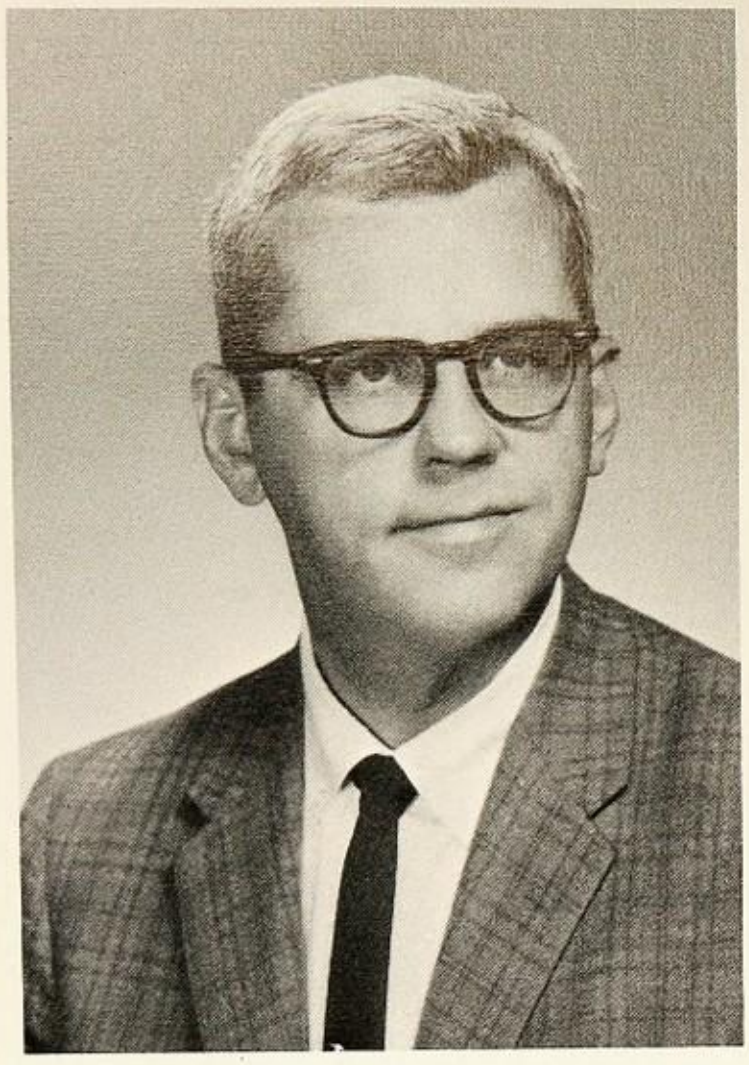
Guidance



RAYMOND F. WALSH

Mr. Walsh, heading the guidance department, has been at Southington High for six years. He graduated from Providence College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree and obtained his Master of Arts Degree from the University of Connecticut.

WILLIAM E. SNOW

Mr. William Snow is in his second year on a full time basis in the guidance department of Southington High. He graduated from Teachers College of Connecticut with a Bachelor of Science Degree. He attended the University of Hartford where he obtained his M.Ed. and C.A.C.S.

Today's high school students are confronted with many more challenges, demands, and decisions than students of previous years. Today's students, however, also have the advantage of specially trained counselors to assist in making decisions and solving problems. The students of Southington High School have just such counselors – Mr. Raymond Walsh and Mr. William Snow.

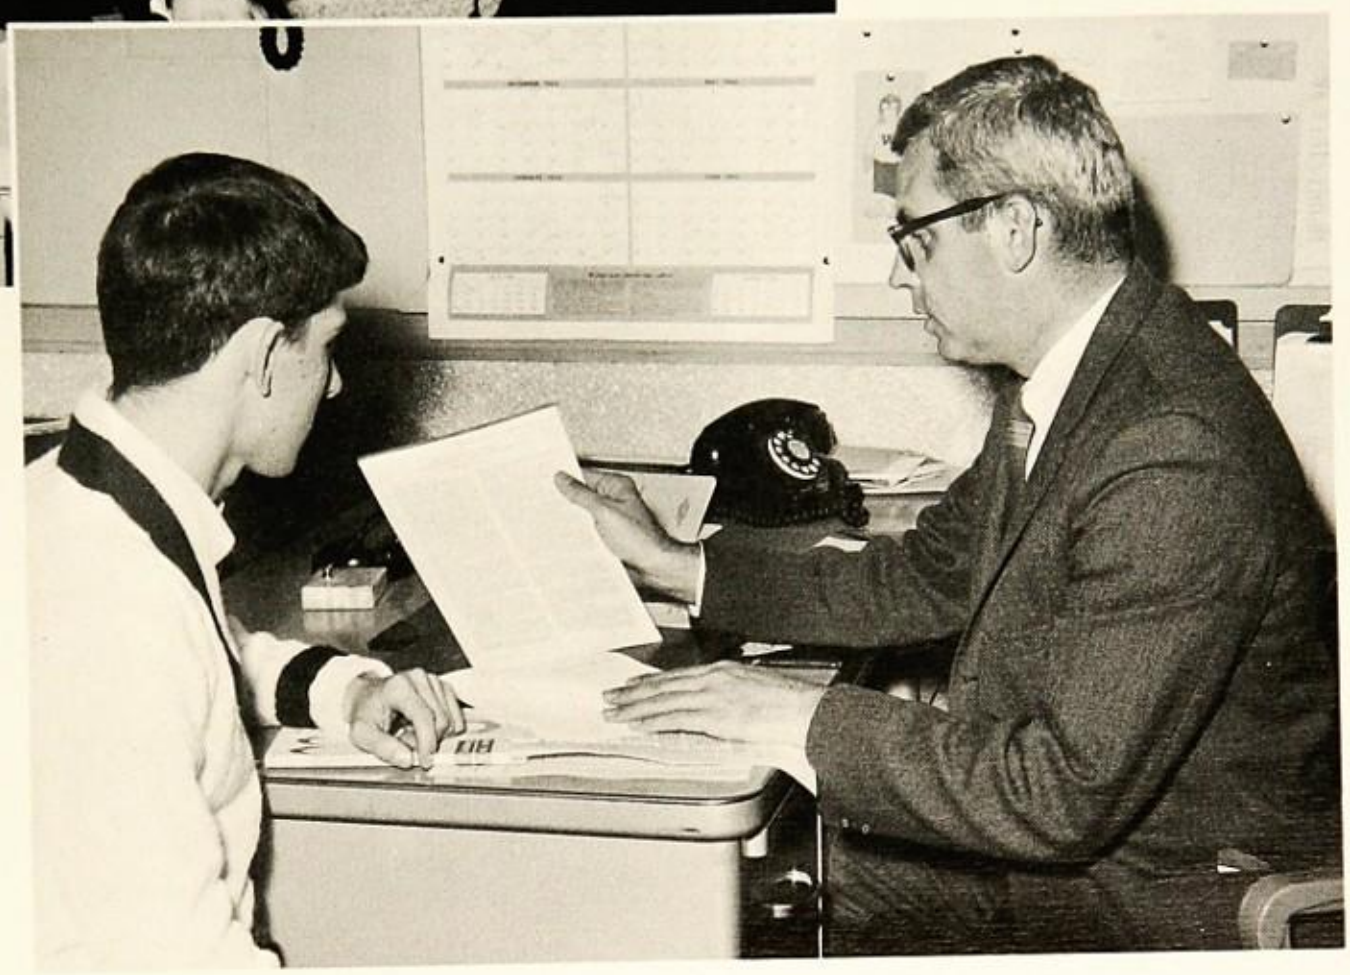
These dedicated men help students to choose proper courses for high school study and then to decide upon a career. To be able to assist in this manner, the counselors must know the personalities, the individual abilities, and the interests of the students. This information is obtained through testing and informal interviews.

To aid students planning to continue their education beyond high school, counselors arrange for student meetings with college representatives. In addition, annual parent-student-counselor discussions have been initiated.

Graduation does not signify the end of the need for counseling, as many graduates return to request assistance of Mr. Walsh and Mr. Snow who had been so helpful during their high school careers.

The student has a friend in his counselor. The Guidance Department does its job well in preparing students for the future.

"Mr. Snow talks over college plans with senior, Jim Moran."



"Mr. Walsh helps Keith Barber with The Parent's Confidential Statement."

"Seniors Ralph Churchill and Bob DeCaro leaf through some of the helpful college information available in the guidance office."

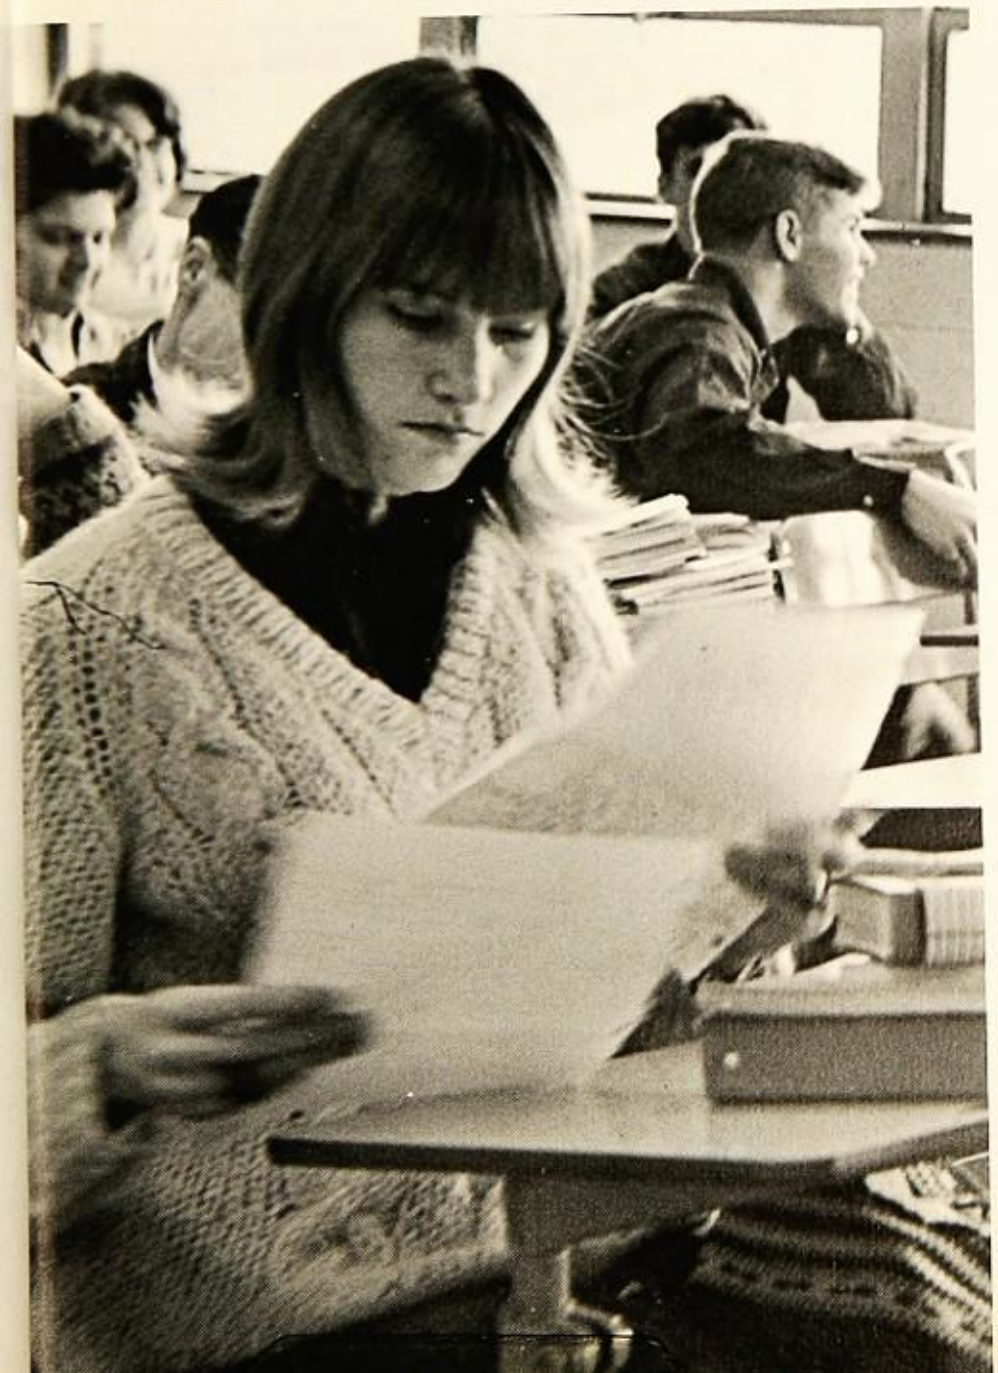
"Sharon Moone seems concerned with her English papers."

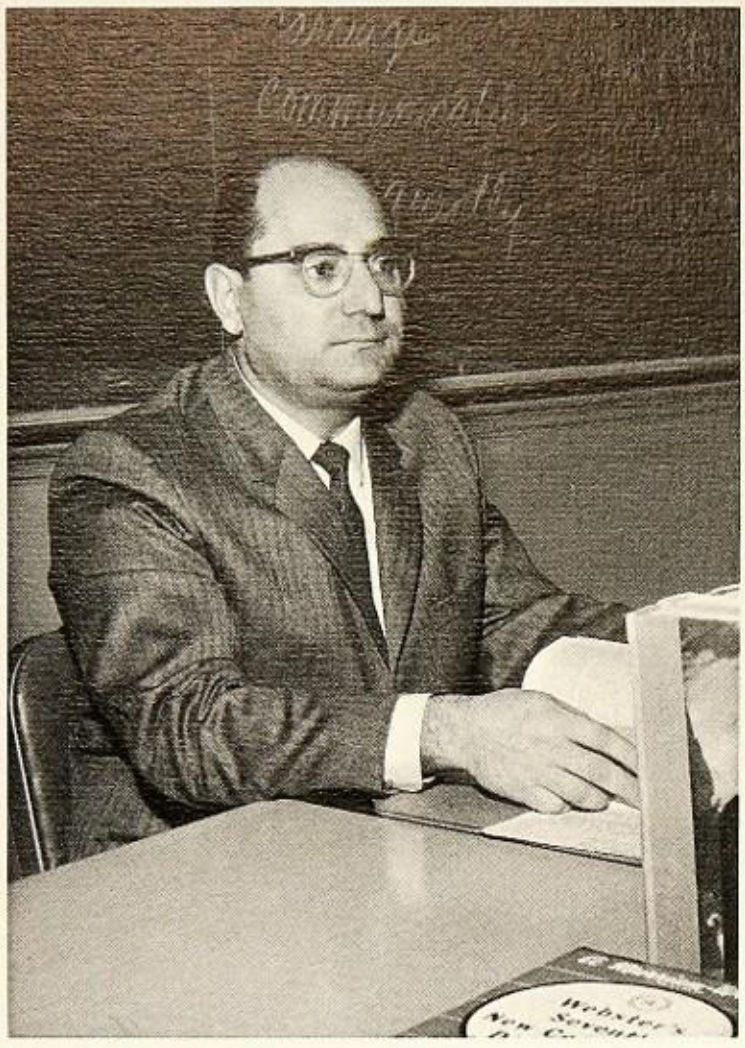


English, the school's largest department has tried, through a wide and flexible program, to reach all its students in promoting a respect for literature and grammar.

One important goal of any English program is the encouragement given each individual to develop his own tastes in literature. Each of the General, Standard, and Academic courses has done this in its own way. Much of the best of World, American, and English literature is presented in the closely allied three-year program. Also, stressing the importance of vocabulary building has aided students in speaking and writing more effectively. A certain amount of study in the mechanics of the language is necessary in any English course, and Southington's program is no exception. Grammar, book reports, and oral talks round out the year's curriculum, giving a solid background in all the aspects of a secondary-level course in English.

The success of this program is perhaps reflected in the two senior electives of Public Speaking and Creative Writing. The enrollment in these classes has doubled in the past year, showing the students' growing interest in English.

Mathematics



LAWRENCE W. MUCCI

Heading the department of Mathematics at Southington High is Mr. Lawrence Mucci. He attended Central Connecticut State College and Columbia University and holds his Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts Degrees. Mr. Mucci teaches Senior Mathematics and is presently in his twentieth year of teaching at Southington High.

Remember to continue trying patient and understanding with a nice attitude, don't quit to learn it.

In recent years the math department has seen a great "revolution." Industrialization and the changing world require the teaching of new mathematical concepts. The emphasis of many subjects, already included in the math curriculum, must be changed. The need to teach more math – and a more updated math – is evident. What is sought is a math that will stimulate the interested student, rather than discourage him through boredom and an outdated curriculum.

At Southington High School, a more meaningful math is being taught. Through textbooks with a modern approach and a modern method of teaching students learn to reason logically for themselves, then to challenge the originality of their thinking.

The modern world has enlarged the need for a sound mathematical background. Through this "revolutionized" math program, we are helping to supply the efficient mathematicians the future demands.

Mr. Lawrence Mucci, head of our math department, was honored to spend last summer studying under the Shell Merit Fellowship Program. Mr. Mucci was one of the fifty educators from the eastern half of the United States to be awarded a fellowship by the Shell Oil Company, and one of two men chosen from the State of Connecticut.

Shell Merit Fellows were chosen on the basis of experience and the desire to learn and spread modern knowledge. These teachers, men of leadership in their respective schools, were men who realized the need for continuous learning and constant innovations in the teaching process.

A study in basic concepts with up-to-date approaches, the program was conducted from July 5 to August 13 at Cornell University. Guest lecturers supplemented the talks of the professors.

As knowledge amassed by Shell eventually filters into the classroom, the program is of benefit both to the teacher and his future students.

Southington High is indeed honored to have Mr. Mucci as a faculty member.

Science

MISS NELLIE SHEPARD

Miss Shepard, head of the Science department, attended Central Connecticut State College, Wesleyan University, Yale University, and Saint Joseph College. She holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts in Liberal Studies. Miss Shepard has been teaching at Southington High for eight years and instructs classes in Chemistry and Physics.

The science department at Southington High School offers students courses in biology, chemistry and physics.

In recent years, all sciences have undergone updating. Biology is no exception. Biologists were not satisfied with the traditional method which stressed straight memorization. Under a grant from the National Science Foundation the emphasis has been shifted to the molecular, cellular and community levels of biology instead of all the technical jargon that aims at training the technical expert.

A new program in chemistry is also being taught at Southington High School this year. This is the new Chemical Education Material Study program. This new program places emphasis upon the most enjoyable part of chemistry – experimentation. The student sees principles grow out of observations he has made in the laboratory. Consequently there is no need in this program for endless memorization.

Two advanced science courses are offered at Southington High. These courses are in biology, the prerequisite being introductory biology, and physics, the prerequisite being chemistry. These courses are designed for students who intend to put the major emphasis of their college work on science.

This year has seen the language department at its largest and most complete form in the history of Southington High.

Advanced two-year courses in German and Italian are being taught. Besides a four-year course in Latin, four year courses in French and Spanish have been offered for the first time. The first two years of these programs find the student learning the basic fundamentals of the language. In the third and fourth years, specialization is stressed as the student translates literary works of the country's most noted writers. He is also acquainted with the culture of the language by extensive study of the people and their customs. This opportunity enables the college-bound student to acquire a more solid background in the language he will pursue further.

Ann,
Best of luck to a fine student and great young lady.

Last summer, on a grant from the National Defense Education Act, Mr. Alphonse D'Angelo attended the Italian institute at Central Connecticut State College. A select group of twenty-five educators from all of the United States attended this two-month seminar, which was held in commemoration of the seven hundredth anniversary of the birth of Dante.

Mr. D'Angelo had courses in the new audio-lingual approach to teaching, Italian culture, and intensive oral training. As well as the studies, there were many Italian social gatherings, movies, and lectures.

Italian was spoken at all times of the day. Learning from his fellow students, one third of whom were native-born Italians, Mr. D'Angelo acquired an increased facility to speak the language.

In his classes here at Southington High, Mr. D'Angelo now stresses more oral work and cultural background so that students will associate a language with the people who speak it.

Social Studies

The ideals of democracy, citizenship, and the social theory are explained to the student by the many courses offered by the social studies department of Southington High School.

In his first year the student is offered courses in Civics and Ancient History, the latter which lays the foundation for a better understanding of man's achievements. As a sophomore, he may choose between Modern History and World History, both of which are concerned with major events in politics and economics. Along with these, Economic Geography elaborates on economic systems and environments. U.S. History is a mandatory subject for the junior year. This course develops the student's understanding of the American principles and ways of life.

For the seniors, Sociology and Problems of American Democracy are offered to fill out the program.

RAYMOND J. JOYAL

Mr. Joyal, head of the Social Studies department, attended the University of New Hampshire where he obtained his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts Degrees. Mr. Joyal teaches classes in United States History. He has been teaching for thirty-six years at Southington High and has been advisor to Chronicle staffs for over twenty years.

Best Wishes for a successful ending, if you continue your present study + perform as you have indeed will be. Keep up the good work. Best wishes Mr. D

The business department of Southington High offers courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office machines. All knowledge is put together in the Office Practice course, where future secretaries are exposed to actual working conditions.

Continually advancing, the business department this year has shown even greater improvement. This is attributed mostly to the installment of a "Steno-Lab" one year ago. Giving individual attention to each student's problems, this development has proved itself as a true asset to this increasingly important curriculum. Mrs. Fontana appropriately stated, "After one year of experience using the steno-lab in three classes of Gregg-Shorthand, results were amazing – speed development was simplified and students developed higher speeds than ever before. It's a wonderful addition to the business department's excellent equipment."

ANNA M. FONTANA NAMED EBTA TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Anna M. Fontana, head of our business department, was honored by receiving the Eastern Business Association Teacher of the Year Award for the year of 1965.

Mrs. Fontana's accomplishments extended to all of the eight criteria on which nominees were judged: quality of teaching, leadership, personal qualities, school-community relations, organizations, publications, research, and experimentation.

Particularly cited were her activities in the development of business curricula for junior and senior students, her community surveys of changing job opportunities for business students, and her follow-up studies of graduates which resulted in the improvement and expansion of the business education program in the school.

It was noted that, "The effect of these accomplishments had been to build a close and rewarding relationship with the public and business communities and to provide a dedicated and inspiring example for her students and her colleagues."

Music

CONRAD A. GOZZO

The leader and sole instructor of the Music department is Mr. Conrad Gozzo. He attended Boston University where he obtained his Bachelor and Master of Music Degrees. Presently in his sixth year here, Mr. Gozzo teaches Band, Orchestra, Chorus, and Music Appreciation. He is also the advisor to the Minstrels.

Since Mr. Gozzo became head of the music department six years ago, progress has been the key word of this now excellent program.

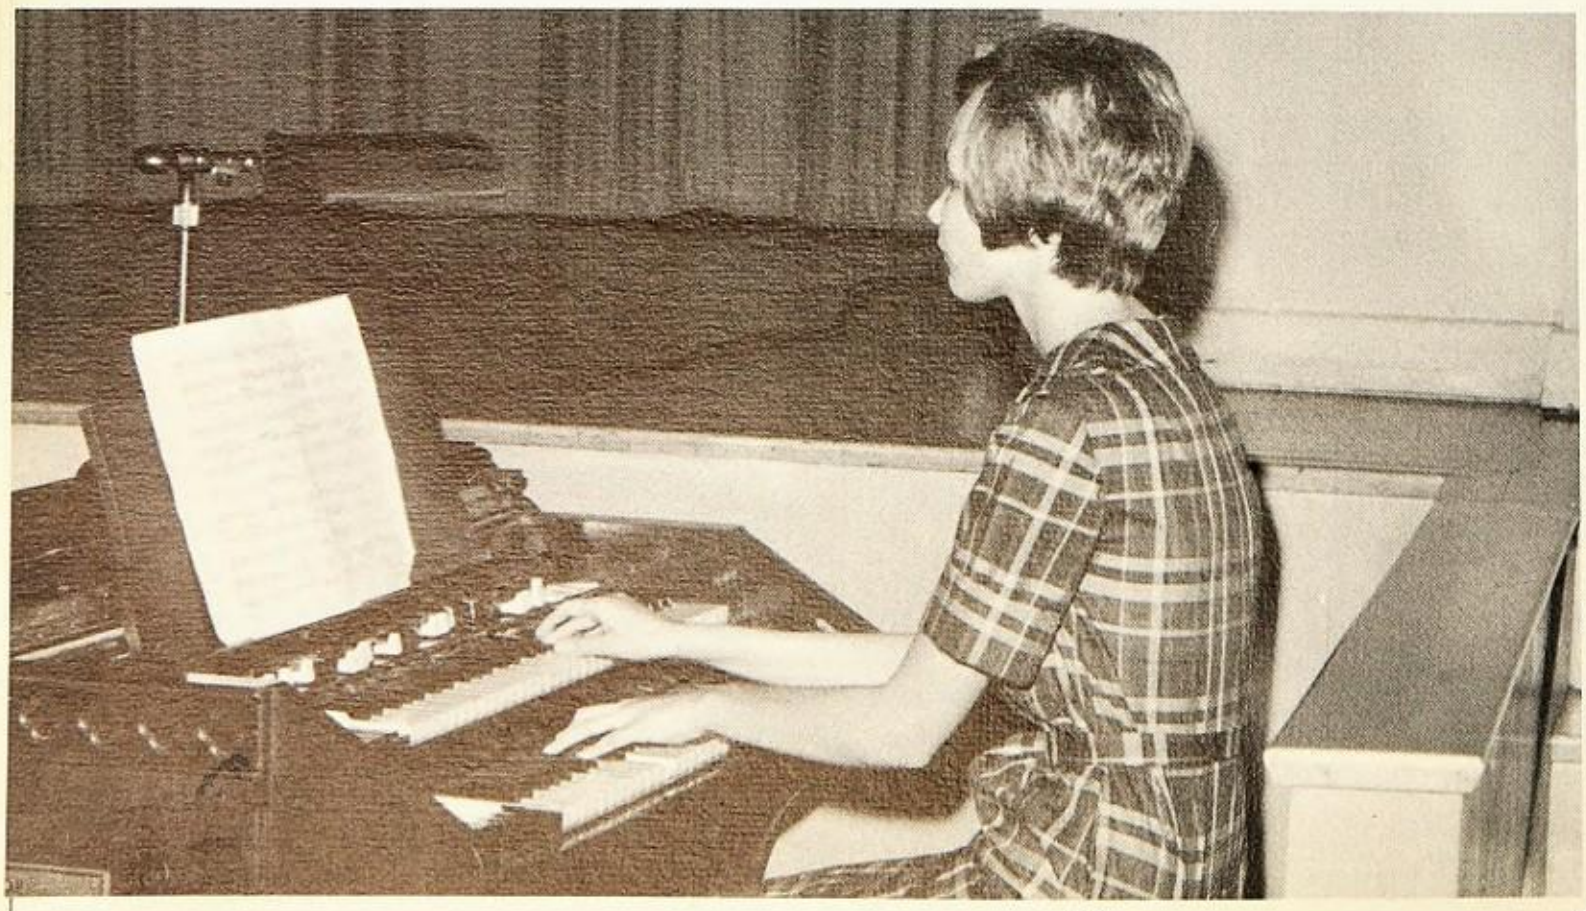
A greater variety of subjects, with more intense practice has brought our music department to an admirable peak of success. This is duly reflected by the fact that our band was chosen the best participating unit in the Bristol Chrysanthemum Festival – a well earned accolade to our school and Mr. Gozzo.

A well-rounded course of study is offered. Band and Beginner's Band, both full-credit courses are for the instrumentally-inclined students. Orchestra, for the more experienced musicians is also a full credit course and, like Band and Beginner's Band includes outside activities, assembly participation, and concerts as a mandatory requirement.

Mixed chorus and Girl's chorus, half credit courses, also include concert performances as a part of the course.

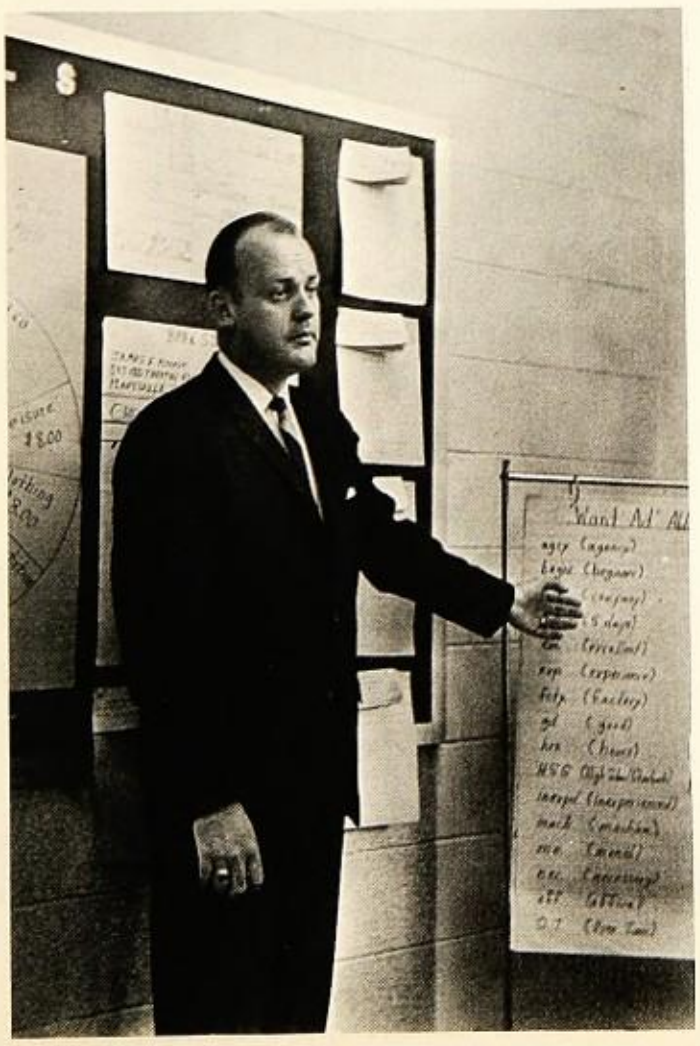
For juniors and seniors interested in the history and theory of music, Mr. Gozzo instructs a Music Appreciation course.

Congratulations are due to Mr. Gozzo and his enthusiastic students for the smart job they do and the honor and pride they bring to our school.



"Orchestra students often have a chance to display their skill at school assemblies."

"Mixed chorus rehearses for concert performances."

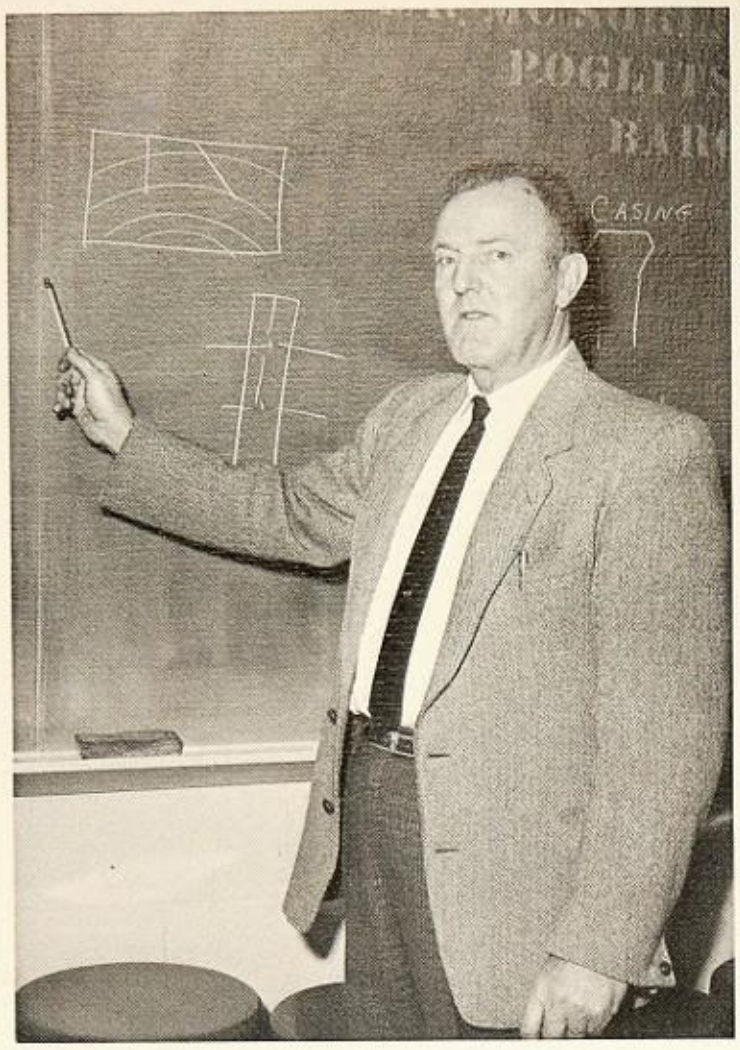


Special Education

ROY E. DAHLBERG

Mr. Dahlberg is in his first year of teaching at Southington High, and has initiated the teaching of Special Education. He has attended Southern Connecticut State, where he received his Bachelor of Science Degree. Mr. Dahlberg has also earned a Master of Education Degree from the University of Hartford.

Industrial Arts



ANDREW A. McSORLEY

Mr. McSorley attended Gorham State Teachers' College, Central Connecticut State College, the University of Connecticut, the University of Maine, the University of Alaska, and the University of Hawaii. He holds a Bachelor of Education and a Master of Arts Degree and instructs classes in wood shop. Head of the Industrial Arts department, Mr. McSorley is in his twenty-ninth year of teaching at Southington.

Included in the Industrial Arts curriculum are extensive courses offered in woodworking, metalworking, mechanical drafting, and arts and crafts.

In his first two years of study, the student is initiated in the various fields of the industrial arts program. After he has been so orientated, the student specializes as a junior and senior to development more fully his chosen field.

The courses offered in the Industrial Arts department both stimulate imagination and creativity and offer the student an opportunity to develop an engrossing hobby or rewarding career.

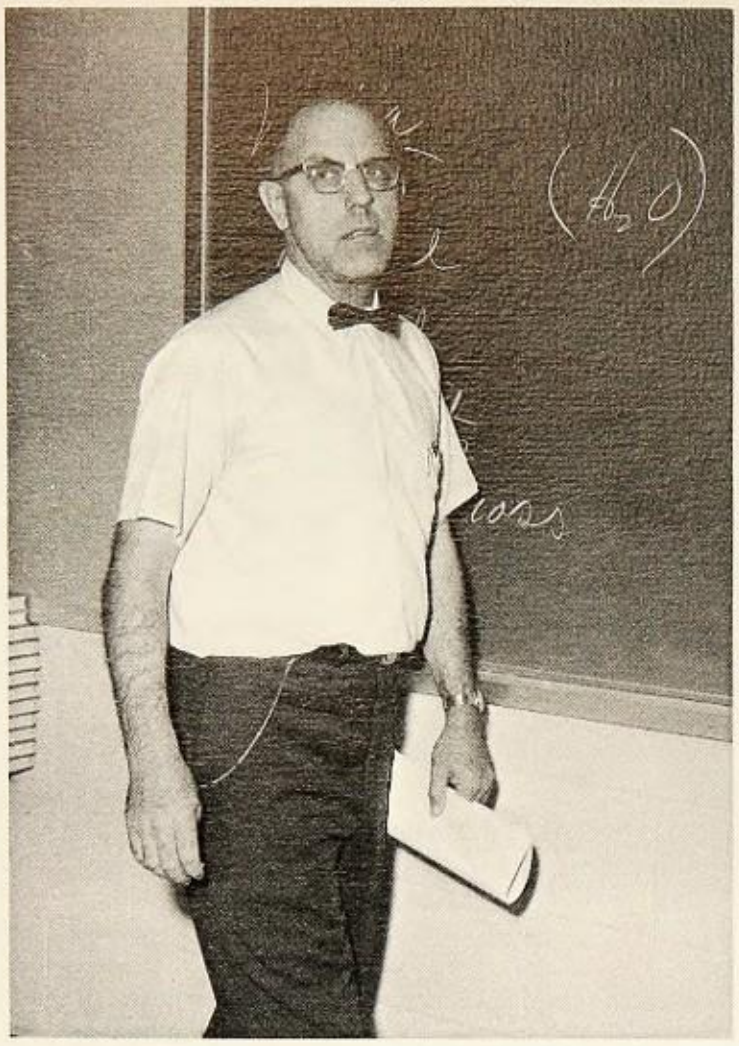
Agriculture



KENNETH C. FARMER

Mr. Farmer, heading the Agriculture department-partment, attened Pennsylvania State University, the University of Connecticut, and Bucknell University. He holds his Bachelor of Science and Master of Education Degrees. In his tenth year of teaching here, Mr. Farmer instructs classes in Agriculture and Ornamental Horticulture at Southington High's Vocational Agriculture center. Mr. Farmer is also the advisor to the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

Our Agriculture Department, through its courses in livestock, crop production, forestry, greenhouse management, conservation, insect control, mechanical repair, and soil grading, provides the student with a firm basis for further study in the agricultural field. This department gives to nearly one hundred students the necessary knowledge and experience to meet the needs of the future farmer.

The most notable progress has been shown through the Vocational-Agriculture center, just opened last year.

A new course this year, Ornamental Horticulture, teaches the science of growing and processing lawns, shrubs, flowers, and so forth.

The Agriculture Department is more than succeeding in preparing its students to face the demands of American agriculture of the day.

"Modern apparatus in the New Vocational Agriculture Center is of great benefit to the students."

Homemaking

MRS. FRANCES HALLET

Head of the Homemaking department, Mrs. Hallet obtained her Bachelor of Science Degree at Farmington State Teachers' College. In her fourteenth year of teaching here, Mrs. Hallett instructs classes in Homemaking and Home and Family Living. She is also the advisor to the local branch of the Future Homemakers of America.

MRS. ELIZABETH McNERNEY

Homemaking II

The Homemaking Department at Southington High School is not merely concerned with cooking and cleaning and sewing.

The many courses in this curriculum offer girls an excellent opportunity to prepare themselves for their future roll as mother and homemaker. Units of study such as personal and family relationships, housing, and child care are offered as well as courses in family health and economics.

The invaluable experience and technique which is gained through this department is taken with the girls into future life. The course provides experiences which well make the girls credits to both their communities, and it undoubtedly contributes immeasurably to the development of a responsible woman.

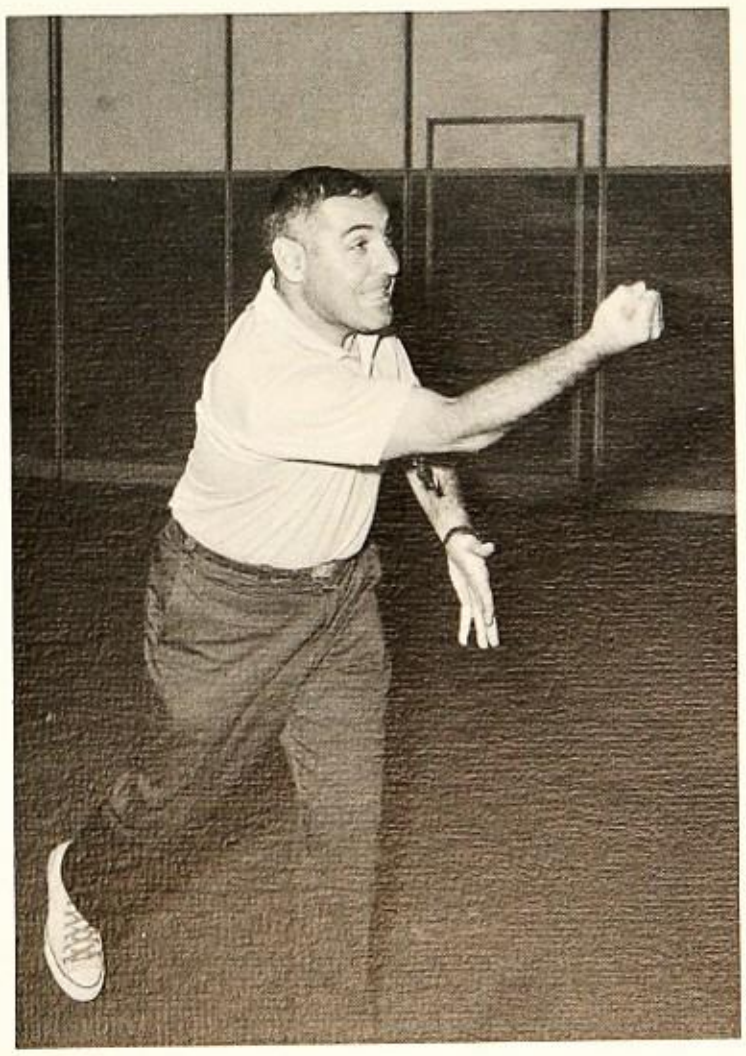
The Physical Education department does its part in the two-fold test of developing mind and body. Competent instructors help the students improve and increase their athletic abilities, at the same time instilling the ideals of sportsmanship and teamwork.

The vigorous program of boy's physical education starts with outdoor touch football, then progresses to volley ball and basketball in the gym when cold weather comes. The boys are then instructed in a program of physical fitness on the gymnastic apparatus culminating in the Army Physical Fitness test. When spring brings warm weather, tennis begins, followed by track and field activities. Softball terminates the well-rounded program.

For the girls, field hockey is the main event on the fall schedule. During winter the girls participate in volley ball, basketball, and badminton, and, in spring, the mandatory physical fitness test. With warm weather they too are active in tennis and softball. This well-balanced program provides the girls with an effective stimulus for physical alertness.



"Coach Orsene is in perfect form after a serve of the volley ball."

President's Message

The space I have to write on is very limited to say what I wish to say.

It has been an honor and a privilege working with you and for you. The experiences we have shared number many, the joys, countless. Now it is time to shed this coat of a make believe world, and enter a world full of hope and promise. I have great faith that the class of '66, as active members of a promising generation, will take part in the conquest of poverty, prejudice and war with the weapons of compassion, knowledge and understanding. We are all part of a new movement designed to overcome the enemies of mankind.

The knowledge we have obtained, we will apply to build a strong foundation for the future of this country.

The road ahead of us will not be an easy one, but if we meet all the challenges we encounter with the same enthusiasm and drive we have employed at S.H.S., we will be successful in all we endeavor.

In closing I thank you for the privilege of serving you.

— RALPH PASSARELLI
Class President

Class Poem

What is life but a coming dawn
A rising sun.
Bringing forth light and warmth
But a sun must set, the light must die
As does life

What is life but a shimmering jewel
The Brightest diamond
Shining brighter than any star above
But a diamond may tarnish, fade in beauty
As does life

What is a memory but a flower in a field.
A rose clinging to its vine
With petals soft and beauty rare
But beauty fades and petals wither
As does a memory

What is a memory but a handful of grain
The seeds of life
Bringing forth life wherever sowed.
But grain must be harvested before it is lost
As does a memory

A life, a memory.
A sun may set, a rose may wither
And yet if they have brought happiness to a heart
Or a smile to a saddened face
Then they would be the greatest gifts
God hath given us.
As is life, as is a memory
Respect one as you would treasure the other

WILLIAM BOYLES

Class History

One day when we are in a pensive mood, recalling fond memories, perhaps we will look back on that September day in 1962 when we, as the "little shots", began our high school career. We must have been quite a sight to the upperclassmen when, meek and frightened, we rambled through the halls of Southington High. This disorientation soon disappeared, as we became an integral part of S.H.S.

In September of '62, we held our first meeting, for the purpose of choosing class officers. Elected were Bob Smith, president; Mike Giammatteo, vice president; and Ralph Passarelli, secretary-treasurer. We proudly chose Mr. Dominic Giallello as our class advisor. We were thus prepared to meet any challenge which might confront us.

As enthusiastic frosh, we rallied to nominate and support Melissa Derby, as our candidate for Homecoming Queen.

The first chance to prove ourselves came on October 17 when we sponsored our first dance, agreed a great success by all attending.

For individual honors, Paul Serafino won the Freshman Algebra Prize and tied with Dave Jankowski for the Freshman Latin Prize.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

We entered our "sophomoric" sophomore year with new class officers, elected the previous May. Bob Smith again assumed the office of president, Ralph Passarelli became our new vice president, and Jim Lasek and Linda Angelone entered as treasurer and secretary respectively.

The struggle for class supremacy was displayed in the annual magazine drive. The class fought handsomely and finished in a close second place.

As in our freshman year, we also scored as close runners-up in the Talent Show. Mike Giammatteo, however, won honors for the class as he won first prize for his excellent piano solo.

In May of that year we carefully selected our class rings. Following the new trend, we chose the oval-stone, "collegiate" style.

Cheerleading tryouts saw six happy girls from the Class of 1966 as new members on the cheerleading squad. They were: Susan Josephson, Marlene Kowalski, Becky Ossorio, Lorraine Piercey, Barbara Phillips, and Mary Ellen Thayer.

Prom couples await the announcing of King and Queen at the Class of 66's junior prom, "At Heaven's Gate."

A riotous scene in the Junior Class' production of "You Can't Take It With You.'

JUNIOR YEAR

Our Junior year began with a feeling of confidence and cockiness. After all, we were juniors, veterans on the battlefield, etc., etc. Officers for the year were: Ralph Passarelli, president; John Landino, vice president; Sue Josephson, secretary, and Fred Pelletier, treasurer.

Our first event of the year, the junior dance, was "a huge success, showing again the undying spirit of the Class of '66."

It was shortly after that that we proved to be no easy pushover by coming in second place in the Talent Show. Mike Giammatteo once again brought honors by winning best act. A little more united and certainly more determined, we set out to win the magazine drive. It was a close race, giving us a second place in the contest.

This was the year we decided to award positions in the class on the basis of merit rather than popularity. We exercised this idea when we chose James Lasek and Donna Lovely to be co-chairmen of that wonderful evening on February 6: The Junior Prom.

Also in February of that year was the meritous Junior Recital. Seven individuals of the class, William Boyles, Douglas Daily, Dean de la Chevrotier, AntoinetteDenorfia, Randall Garry, Margaret Malinowski, and Ralph Passarelli delivered intriguing speeches. William Boyles placed first with his moving speech: "I Am Freedom."

Our next adventure and it was exactly that, a hectic experience which brought out the patience and determination of our advisor, Mr. Giallello, was the junior play. We will long remember that hilarious evening of March 19 when approximately twenty juniors displayed their hidden talents in the 66er's production of "You Can't Take It With You."

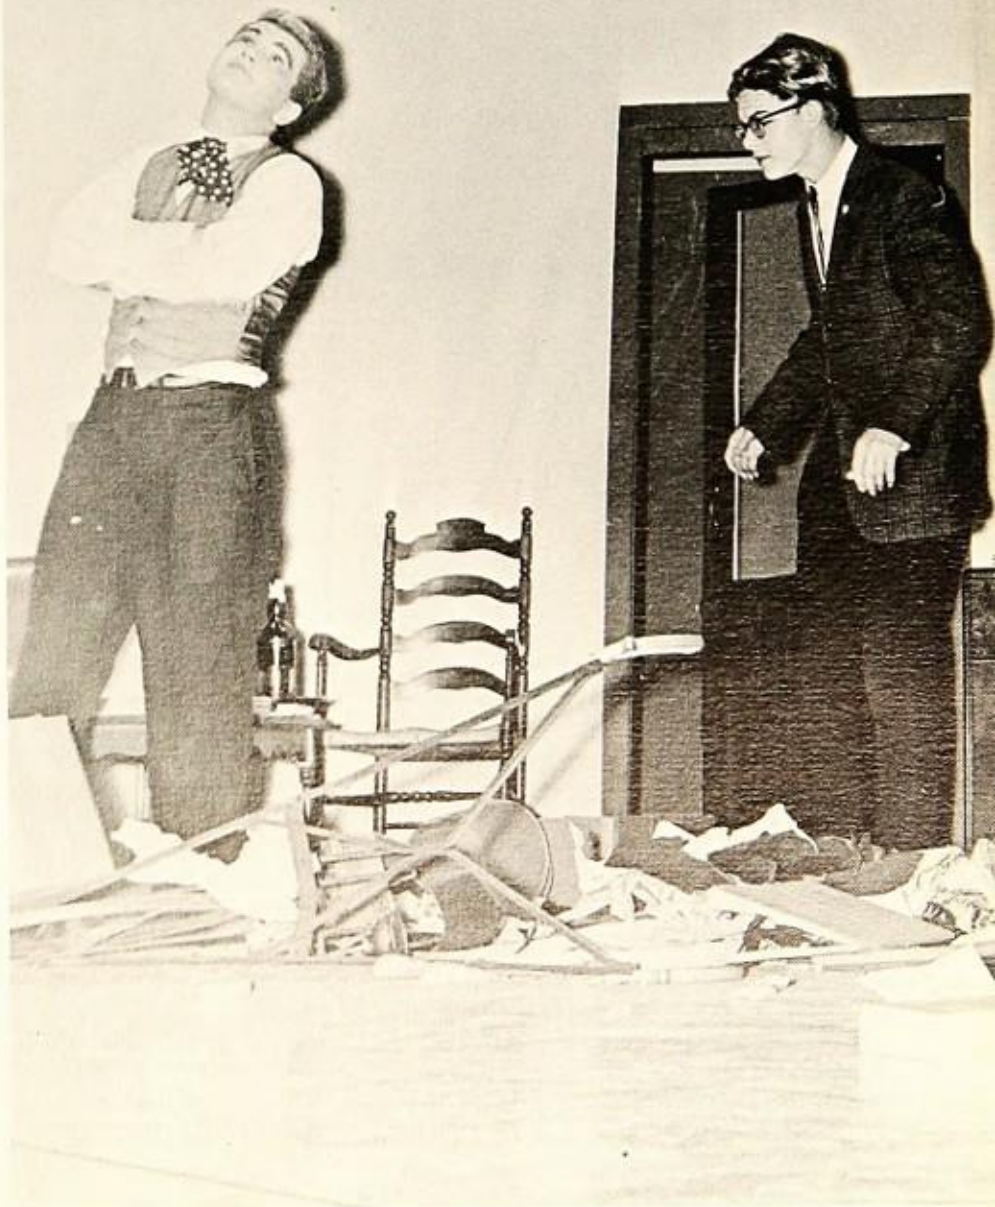
Chosen in May of that year to represent the school at Nutmeg Boys' State were Pete Anderson, Ralph Churchill, Randy Garry, Pete Mongillo, Larry Mucci, and Bob Smith. Selected as representatives for Laurel Girls' State were Susan Josephson and Margaret Mancini.

SENIOR YEAR

We entered our senior year with the realization that this was finally it. We were now the "big shots", the leaders of the school. Ralph Passarelli was once again president of the class, Mike Giammatteo and Susan Josephson returned as vice president and secretary respectively, and Pete Anderson became our new treasurer.

This year has brought its regular host of events and accomplishments, each of them better than ever before for the Class of 1966: the senior play, "George Washington Slept Here," headed by co-chairmen Bob Baumer and Marianne Knapp and starring Jim Moran and Annette Denorfia . . . the senior prom, "Younger Than Spring," with our co-chairmen Fran Maineri and Sue D'Angelo . . . Class Night, organized by Fred Pelletier and Mary Polanski . . . and lastly, Class Day.

It's nearly over now, four years of happiness have passed by . . . Soon they will be a memory . . .



Jim Moran and Lester Ruth played their parts excellently in the Senior play, "George Washington Slept Here."

You... the '67 Under '68 Classmen

Themselves Integral part of SHS

As always this school year has been momentous as well as successful for the Class of 1967.

For the third straight year the Juniors placed first in the annual Magazine Drive this fall. Participation in the Talent Show as well was first rate, and the Class of '67 again won the award for selling the greatest amount of tickets.

Early in November the gym was transformed into an "Enchanted Forest" and the Class of '67 produced its lovely Junior Prom under the leadership of Chris Brennan and Donna Gregoretti.

In February Junior Robert Mals vied with classmates Linda Bass, Rudy Cabata, Barry Egan, Dorothy Goggin, and Joe Olszewski to coin first place in the Junior Recital. The success of the class as a whole was reflected as thirty-eight 67'ers were inducted into the National Honor Society later in February.

"Dear Ruth", the first theatrical effort of the class was staged on March 18. With leads played by Sharon Moone and Gary Rosengrant, it alike was met with enthusiasm and co-operation.

Looking forward to the class' future as seniors, class advisor Mr. Solomita predicts, "With a class like this, with so many leaders and workers, we can't help but be successful in all we do."

Unity, Enthusiasm: Keywords for the Class of 1968

As the doors of Southington High School opened this fall, the class of 1968 emerged as a strong and united class.

The first class meeting was held on September 9 and a slate of officers was presented to the class for election. The election was held one week later with the leadership roles assumed as follows: the Advisor was Mr. Kloss, Gary Bilogna, President; Greg Smith, Vice-President; Joanne DiNello, Secretary; Roger Berube, Treasurer.

Following the election of class officers, homerom representatives and Student Council Officers were elected.

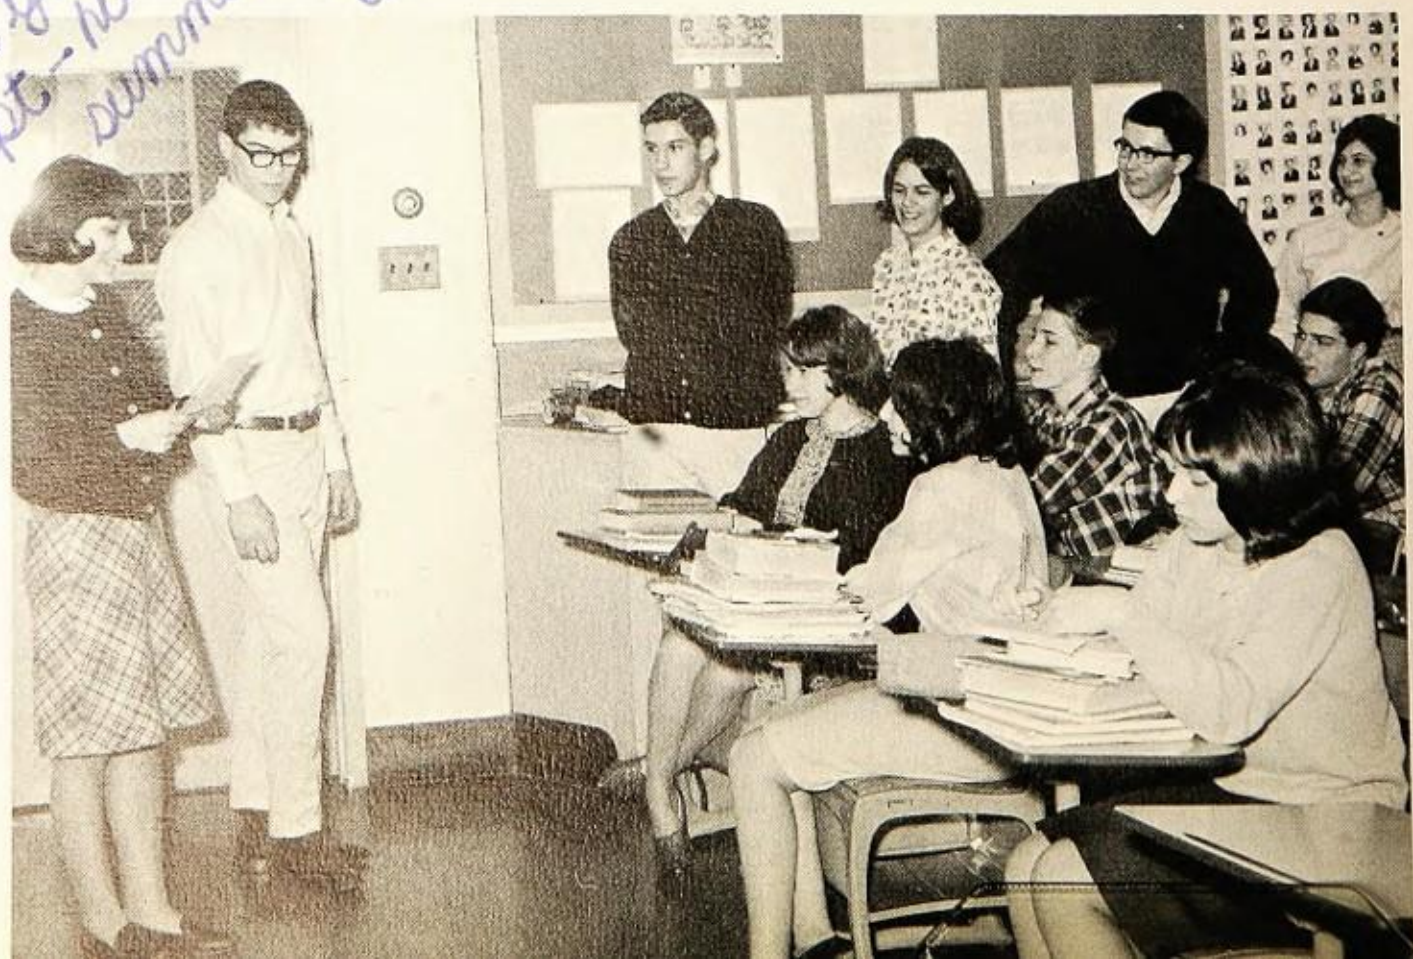
The class of 1968 showed surprising success as they won first prize in the annual Talent Show. This was only accomplished by the outstanding support of every member of the class.

The next project of the year again met with overwhelming enthusiasm. The Sophomore Dance provided an enjoyable evening for all and at the same time bolstered the assets of the class treasury.

As the pressures of the Magazine Drive once again arose, the Sophomores showed fine, united effort as they copped second place, only a slight margin out of first place.

Heartened by past successes and hoping for more to come, the class of 1968 looks to the future. The class is ready to take on all the responsibilities of upperclassmen and are ready to take their berths in a leadership role at Southington High School.

Ann,
To a very intelligent and sophisticated person - I know that your ideals and personality will bring you success and happiness in the future, and may God bless you in whatever you attempt - have a wonderful summer! 'Al' 68'



Joanne DiNello reads the minutes at a sophomore class meeting.

Sophomores visit advisor Mr. Kloss after school.

Ann,
You're a great girl who has both intelligence and initiative. Always remember the fun in Dom's room & hope you succeed in your every endeavor.
Best wishes

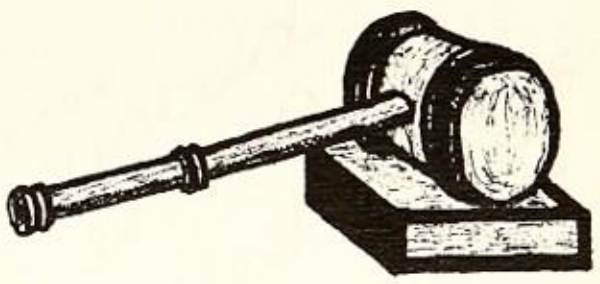
You... and your ACTIVITIES



Student Council

The members of the Student Council, here discussing suggestions from the student body, have sacrificed their time throughout the year for the students' benefit.

The Student Council, a group of elected students, serves as the spokesman for the student body in school affairs. The council is run according to parliamentary procedure and gives its members an insight into government and its practical application. In addition, the Student Council undertakes and supervises many projects and activities beneficial to the school. Through the mutual work and cooperation between the council and the administration, Southington High has become a better school.

The officers of the Student Council are (seated) John Landino (Vice Pres.), Bob Smith (Pres.), (standing) Dori Goggin (Sec.), Ray Angelo (Treas.).

National Honor Society

"The object of this chapter shall be to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the students of Southington High School."

This excerpt from the National Society's Constitution well summarizes the four important traits for which its members are nominated by the faculty: service, scholarship, leadership, and character. The latter three virtues have been cultivated for many years before the February induction each year. Service to the school and community is further rendered through the book sale held each spring, in the money donated to the school library, and in the sale of book covers. The club holds an annual car wash to supplement the treasury.

The club is not all work, however, and even the most austere duty is enlivened by the best part of the club — its members. A combined picnic with the Student Council at the end of the year rounds out the club's activities.

Emblem

Under the guidance of Miss Shorey, the Emblem, which won a first place award in last year's Columbia Scholastic Press Conference, has met with another successful year.

Besides their regular ten issues with excellent news articles and creative editorials, the staff edited its annual literary issue in early May.

In addition, the last Emblem, again the "senior issue" was met with high enthusiasm. May's issue of the Emblemette, which was produced by the underclassmen, provided them with valuable experience and knowledge.

Much credit is due to the Emblem for its service to the school and community.

Key Club

The Key Club is busy discussing the details of the "Toys for Tots" campaign.

The Key Club is chiefly a service organization with the purpose of developing leadership and initiative, serving both the school and community, preparing its members for useful citizenship, and providing experience in living and working together.

This goal of service has been pursued in several ways. Among them are the monetary donations given to the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Library, ushering at all school assemblies, and conducting a "Toys for Tots" campaign for needy children, which gained the recognition and respect of the town's leaders. The Key Club also sponsors a dance each year, and holds a picnic at the end of each year.

Law Club

"Boy do we have a case." The members of the Law Club are preparing for their first trial.

Only Seniors enrolled in Business Law belong to the Law Club. The purpose of the club is to give interested students an opportunity to learn more about the law and also an opportunity to explore areas they are unable to discuss in class due to the limited time of the one half-yearly course. This is done through debates, films, speakers, and other informative activities.

The officers of the Law Club are (seated) Jackie Dupuis (Vice Pres.), Louise Falcetta (Pres), (standing) Betsy McNerney (Treas.), Betty Ann Cantito (Sec.).

Drama Club

The Drama Club prepares for casting in their next play.

The Drama Club has conducted meetings for both acting and production. The acting division has prepared various programs for the club, readings, skits, and improvisations while the production divisions assisted with the major production "Harvey." The activities of the club include a presentation for the Hamden Drama Club and an assembly program.

Orchestra

The Southington High School Orchestra under the direction of Conrad A. Gozzo had a most gratifying and successful year. Performances included the annual Christmas, Winter, and Spring Concerts, which were received with great enthusiasm by members of the school as well as by the general public.

The orchestra has increased greatly in popularity among the student body under Mr. Gozzo. They play at all school assemblies and have doubled their number in the last five years.

The string section of the Orchestra is supported by Pauline Allaire and Betty York.

Ann,
To a great friend and person whom I like very much. Don't forget P.F. this year, & of course, good old Conrad. Best of luck in your last 2 years of S.H.S.
Always,
Martha

The Student Conductors of the Orchestra are (left to right) Margaret Crandall, Phillip Renn, and Alys Osborn.

Minstrels

Members of the Minstrels belt out a rousing chorus.

The Minstrels are a singing group under the direction of Mr. Gozzo. With no officers, the members of this organization are selected personally through auditions with the conductor at the beginning of each school year.

The Minstrels meet every activity period to practice for the annual concerts and other functions at which they perform. During the school year they explore many varied types of music from classical to modern.

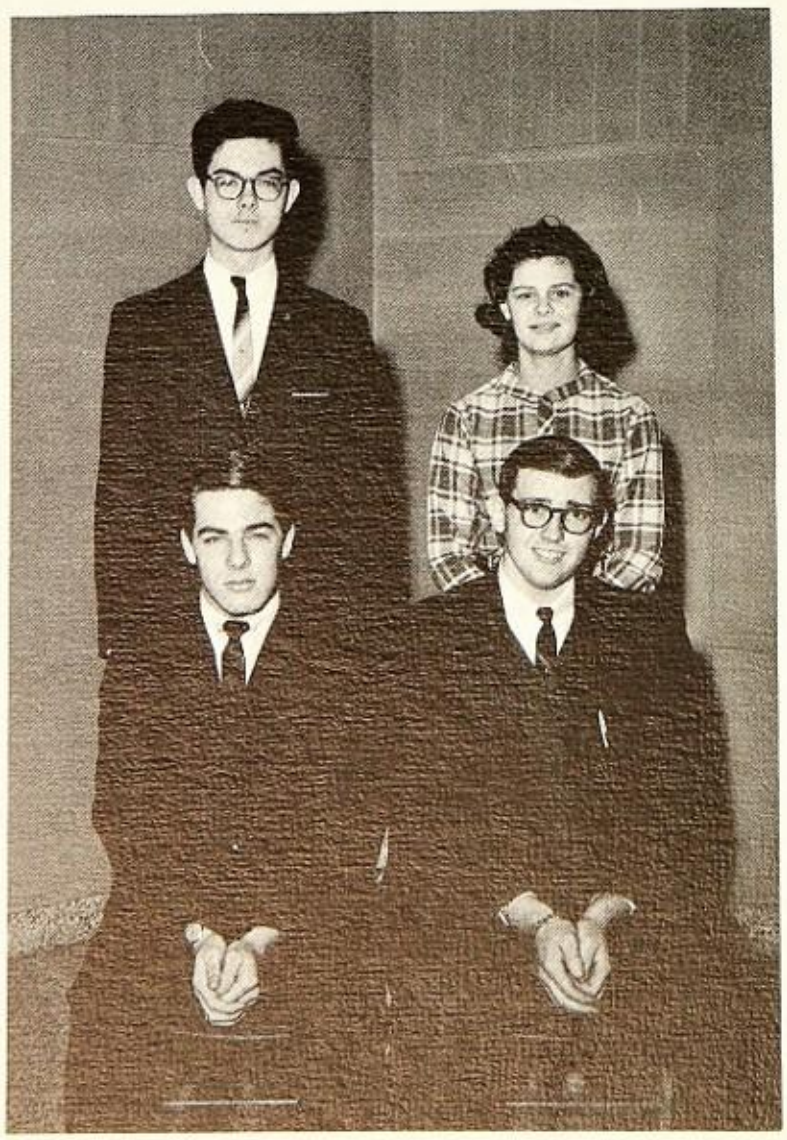
Senior members instruct initiates in use of photographic material.

The Photography Club, under the leadership of Miss Schnick, is now in its second year at Southington High School. The club began the current year with a successful dance and the collection of dues, which helped to place it on a sound financial footing.

By taking, developing, and printing pictures of athletic and social events, club members learn the correct procedures of photography. The Club displays its pictures in the showcase near the library and aids the Chronicle in securing pictures.



The officers of the Photography Club are (seated) Kevin Minor (Pres.), George McKenny (Vice Pres.), (standing) Lester Ruth (Treas.) and Susan Nickerson (Sec.).

Ski Club

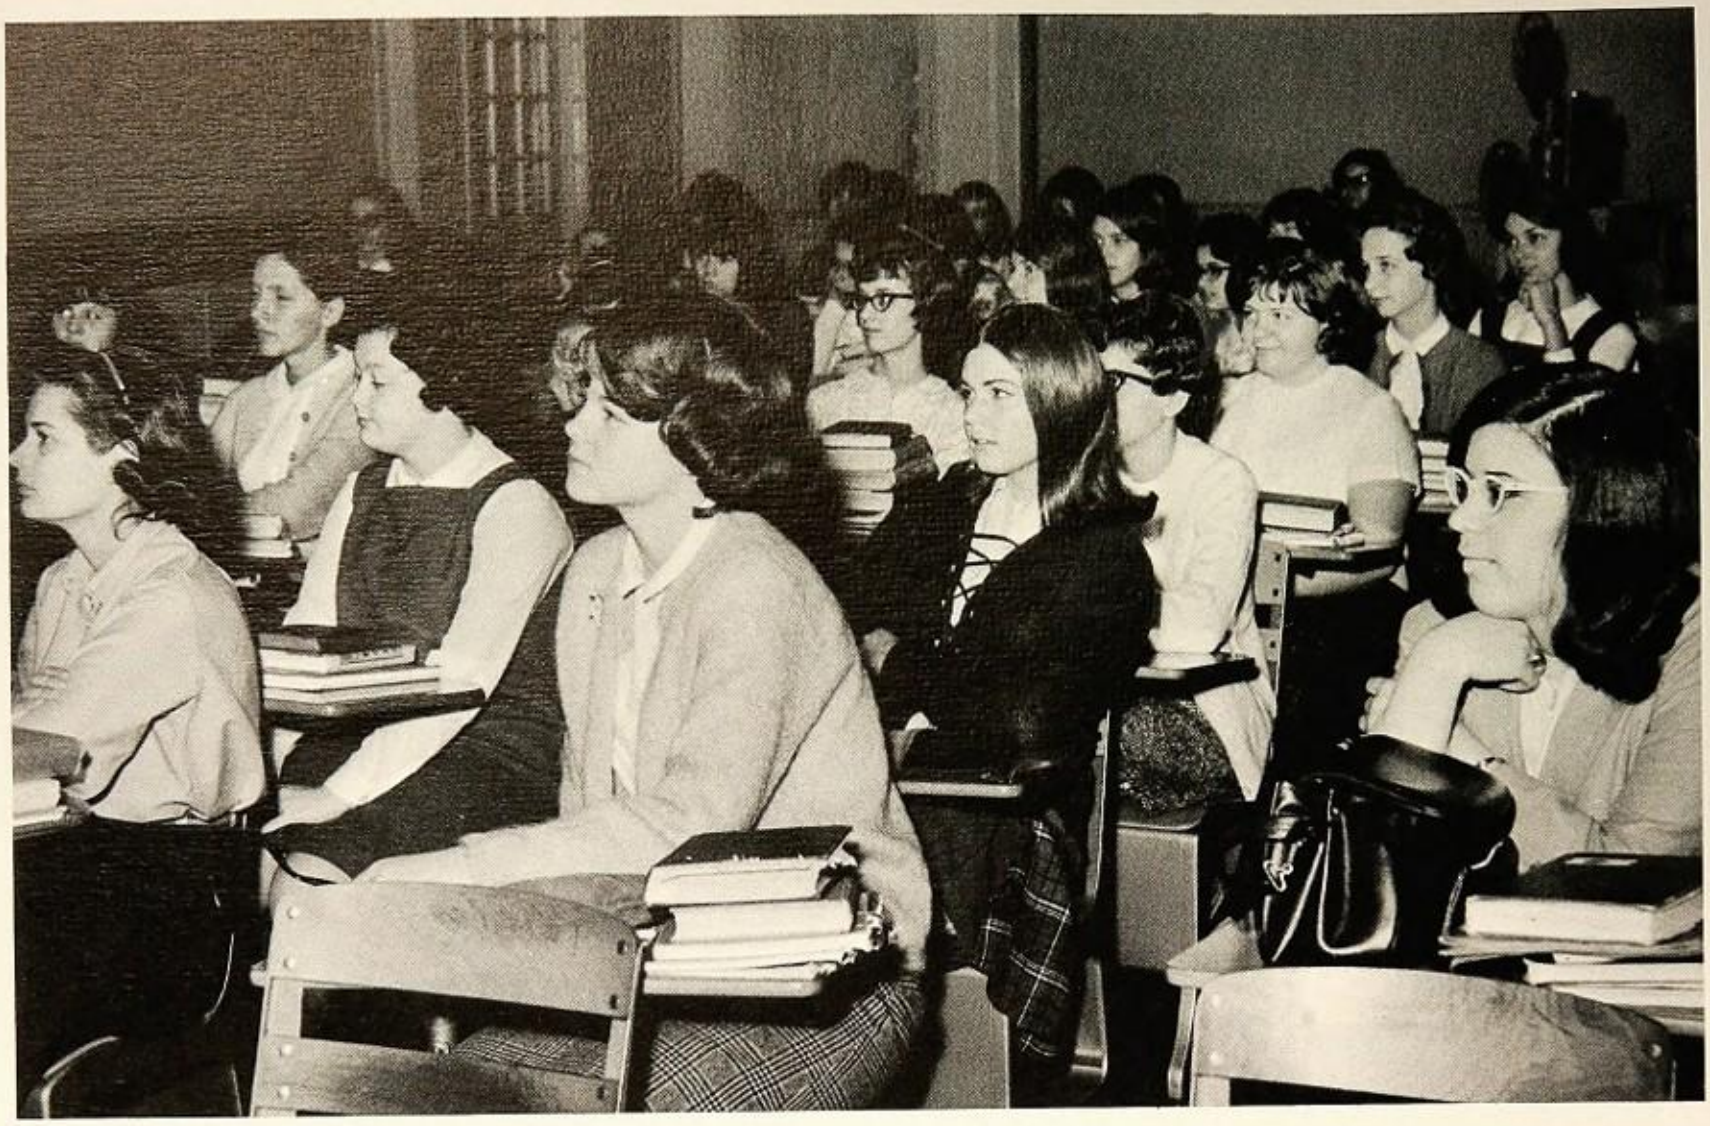
Diane Blevins prepares to start Jim Lasek and Mike Giammatteo on a perilous slalom race in back of the school while other members of the club look on.

The steep descent down a snow-covered slope while the wind whistles in your ears, the shower of snow upon stopping — these thrills are now common experiences for members of the Ski Club.

With Mr. Przygocki, advisor, the club has made weekly trips to Mount Southington this winter. Enthusiastic members are now becoming increasingly skillful in this sport.

The officers of the Ski Club are (bottom to top) Jim Lasek (Pres.), Fred Pellitier (Vice Pres.), Mary Ellen Thayer (Sec.), Steve Burke (Treas.).

Future Teachers of America



Members of the Future Teachers, eager to pass on their knowledge, study a film on teachers' qualifications.

Under the direction of Mrs. Krom, the Future Teachers of America has had a most active year. The club, designed to acquaint members with different methods of teaching, has provided the faculty with a teacher's aid service. Through movies and guest speakers the students learn the responsibilities and rewards of the teaching profession.

The Future Nurses of America, under the direction of Mrs. Alyce Day, R.N., is not only one of the most active, but also one of the most interesting and informative clubs in the school. This past year, the club has had speakers representing fields of X-ray Technology, practical and registered nursing, and Peace Corps nursing.

Other activities within the club include conducting the annual March of Dimes Drive and participating in Volunteer Service Programs at near-by hospitals and Red Cross Bloodmobiles. Field trips to hospitals and schools of nursing also help to acquaint members with various programs offered by a nursing vocation.

Future Homemakers of America

Members of the Future Homemakers prepare a meal for their club meeting.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization which helps to prepare girls for their future roles in the community.

The Club explores, in open discussion, relationships within the home and community. Also under the direction of their advisor, Mrs. Hallet, the group prepares food for both banquets and school activities. This practical experience will aid a great deal in their future life.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization that trains our students to become better farmers, citizens, and leaders of our community. Participation in state judgings dealing with the Plant-Science Department, and sending a delegate to the National Future Farmers of America Convention in Kansas, are just a few of the activities that are developing our members into better farmers.

The Future Farmers who combine theoretical knowledge with practical experience to become acquainted with the skills of farming, are shown here at one of their weekly meetings.

Future Business Leaders of America

One of the typical Future Business Leaders meetings during which they discuss various aspects of business life.

The Future Business Leaders of America is organized, under the guidance of Mrs. Fontana, with the purpose of developing a better knowledge of the opportunities and challenges of the business world. Membership is open to all those students enrolled in at least one business course.

Through guest speakers and discussions, members are encouraged in their interest of business occupations. A sense of leadership, important to all those entering this field, is instilled in each individual.

Music Club

The leaders of the Music Club are (left to right) Lynne Corbin and Alys Osborn, accompanists, Meg Crandall, who plays violin and Phil Renn with the lead trombone.

The Music Club is comprised of all the musical organizations in the school: the band, orchestra, minstrels and the choruses. Its purpose is entertainment.

These various organizations perform at assemblies, rallies, and football games, and several times a year they combine their efforts to give concerts and musicals.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Gozzo, the Music Club has greatly improved over the past year.

Pep Club

"Gimme an S . . ."

The Pep Club at Southington High is truly an example of our school's spirit. Under the guidance of Mrs. Patrick the Club has joined with the cheerleaders in leading the student body on the field and in the gym. With more members than ever before, the Pep Club has become an active part of our growing school.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is an active organization, where sports-minded girls may participate in such intramural sports as field hockey, volleyball, badminton, and basketball. As a reward for their hard work, they also brought about the idea for the girls' award system. Under the supervision of Mrs. Brackley and Mrs. Dahlberg, the girls participating develop good sportmanship and skillful playing.

G.A.A. members participate in a variety of sports.

Cheerleaders

The senior members of the cheerleading squad demonstrate their skills.

Behind Southington High School's victorious teams this year, was an outstanding group of girls. With their lively cheers and tremendous impetus they instilled that winning spirit in the hearts of both spectators and participants.

Through many hours of arduous work and practice, the girls created new routines and perfected older ones. It was through the effort and untiring spirit of the cheerleaders that helped make our team, the winning team.

Majorettes

Hours of hard work are rewarded when the Southington High School Majorettes demonstrate their talents at assemblies, athletic contests and parades. Their half-time exhibition in the annual Thanksgiving Day game was especially enjoyable, since they expertly displayed their skills, both in twirling and dancing. They surely brought honor to the school when they, along with the band and cheerleaders, won a trophy in the Bristol Chrysanthemum Day Parade.

These girls, under the leadership of Sandy Prus, are constantly striving to make their group one of the best organizations in the school.

—Debbie Bugbee—

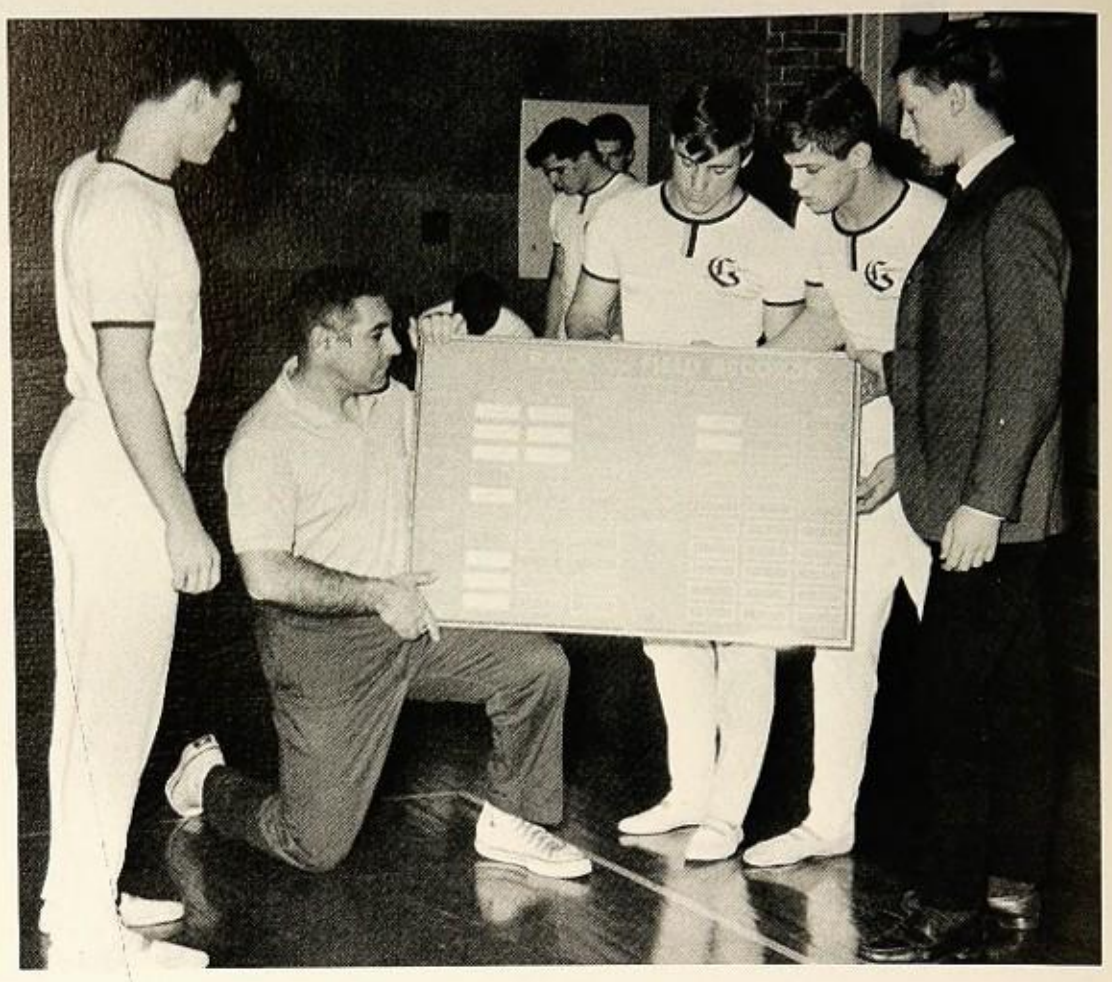
Boys' Leadership Club

One of the biggest assets in building strong minds and bodies at Southington High School is the Boys' Leadership Club. The Club is composed of junior and senior boys who sacrifice their time to aid their fellow students in developing their skills in gym classes. The Leadership Club also contributes materially. They have purchased countless items for the comfort and betterment of the entire student body. Last year they also contributed to the development of our excellent football field. The students of Southington High School owe a great deal of gratitude to this organization and to their two advisors Mr. Orsene and Mr. Nakoneczny.



Advisor Mr. Orsene and members of the Boys' Leadership Club display the Track and Field Records Bulletin Board they donated to the school this year.

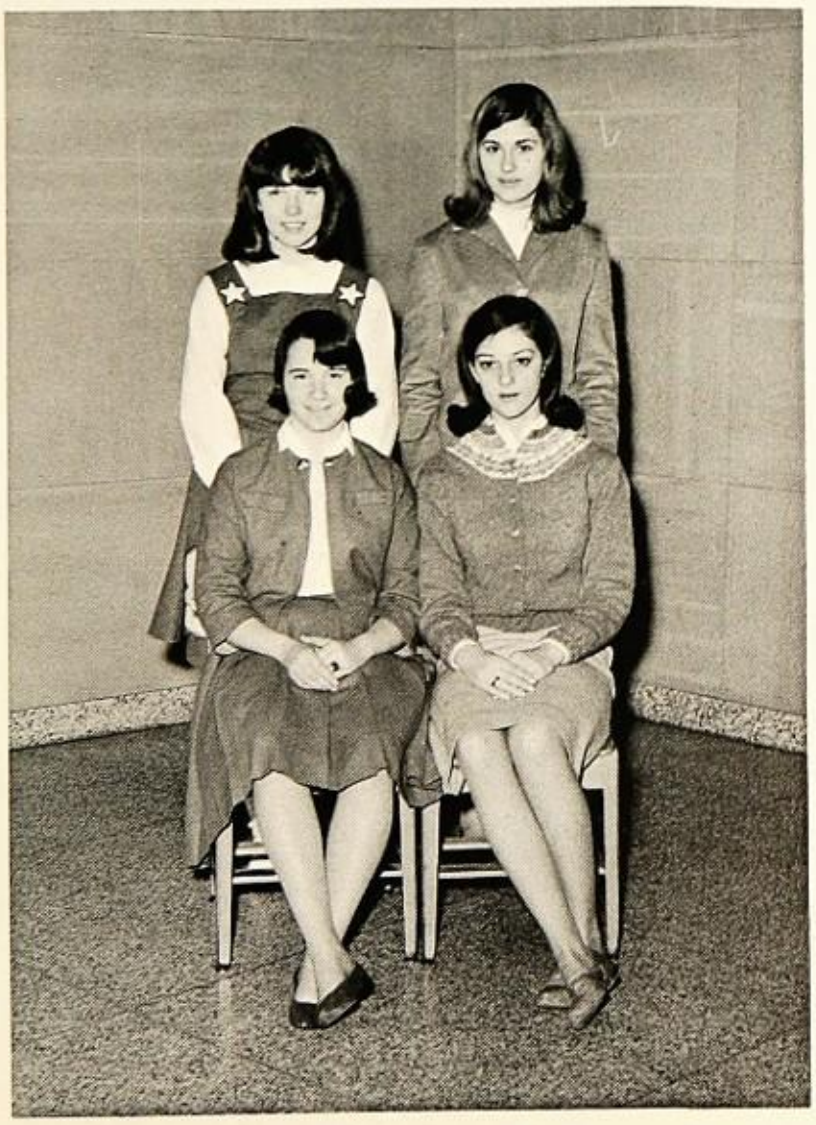
Girls' Leadership Club

"Take me to your leader."

The officers of the Girls' Leadership Club are (seated, left to right) Sharon Brinkley (Pres.), Colleen Foley (Vice Pres.), (standing) Mary Ellen Thayer (Sec.), and Elaine Dunham (Treas.).



Under the able guidance of Mrs. Brackley and Mrs. Dahlberg, the Girls' Leadership Club teaches girls to maintain good character and sportsmanship. They are now planning a co-educational volleyball match, and each year are responsible for the annual Bundle Drive. They also give their time and energy to the instruction of gym classes, and participate in sports, developing good character and team cooperation.

Bowling Club

President Steve Ricard demonstrates the proper techniques of bowling to some of the interested members.

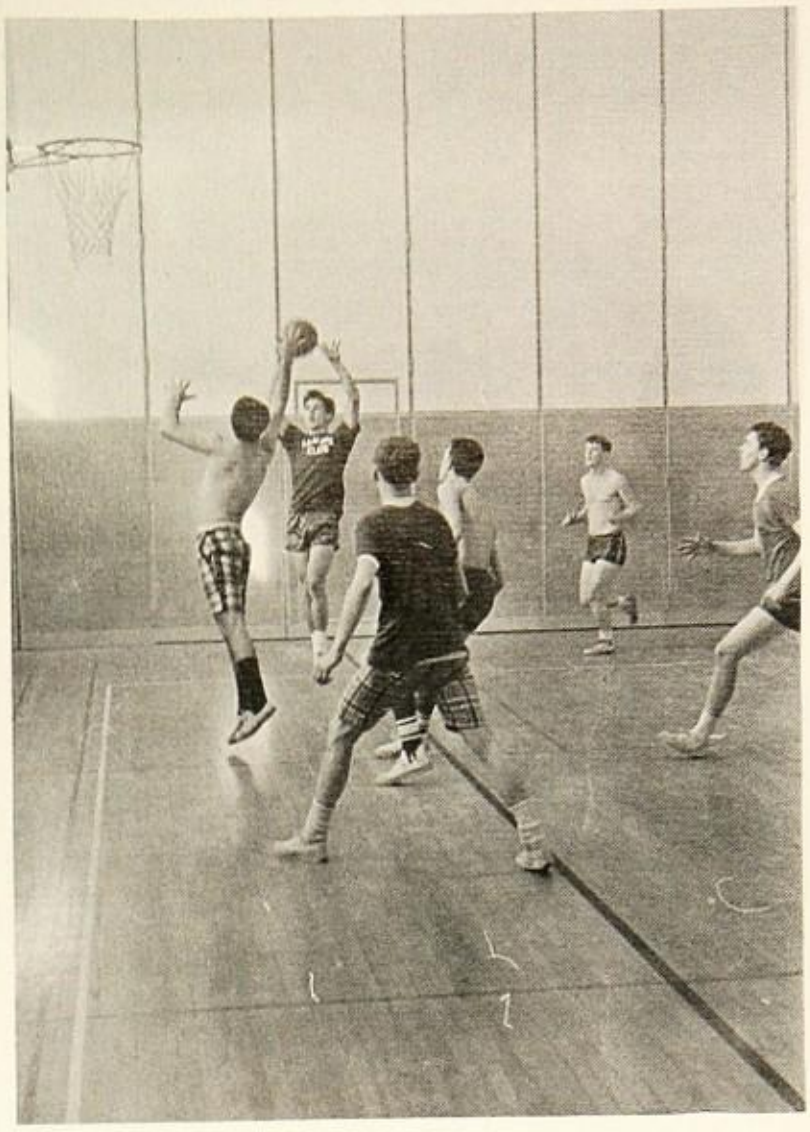
The Bowling Club has been in existence at Southington High for almost 15 years. It consists of interested students who are given a chance to bowl by weekly competition and special contests in the course of the year. A relatively small group, this club provides relaxation, in addition to valuable instruction, in a sport that can be continued to be enjoyed by its members for many years.

The officers of the Bowling Club are (seated) Mary Diamond (Pres.), Steve Ricard (Vice Pres.), (standing) Evelyn Recko (Sec.), and Leanne Johnson (Treas.).

Intramurals

Every Tuesday and Friday afternoon after school during the basketball season, four of the eight intramural basketball teams gather to compete for the team trophies awarded at the end of the season.

These intramural tournaments are organized in order to give the students a chance to have fun and learn the skills of basketball at the same time. In these games good sportsmanship is encouraged at all times. The games are refereed by volunteers from the Boys' Leadership Club.

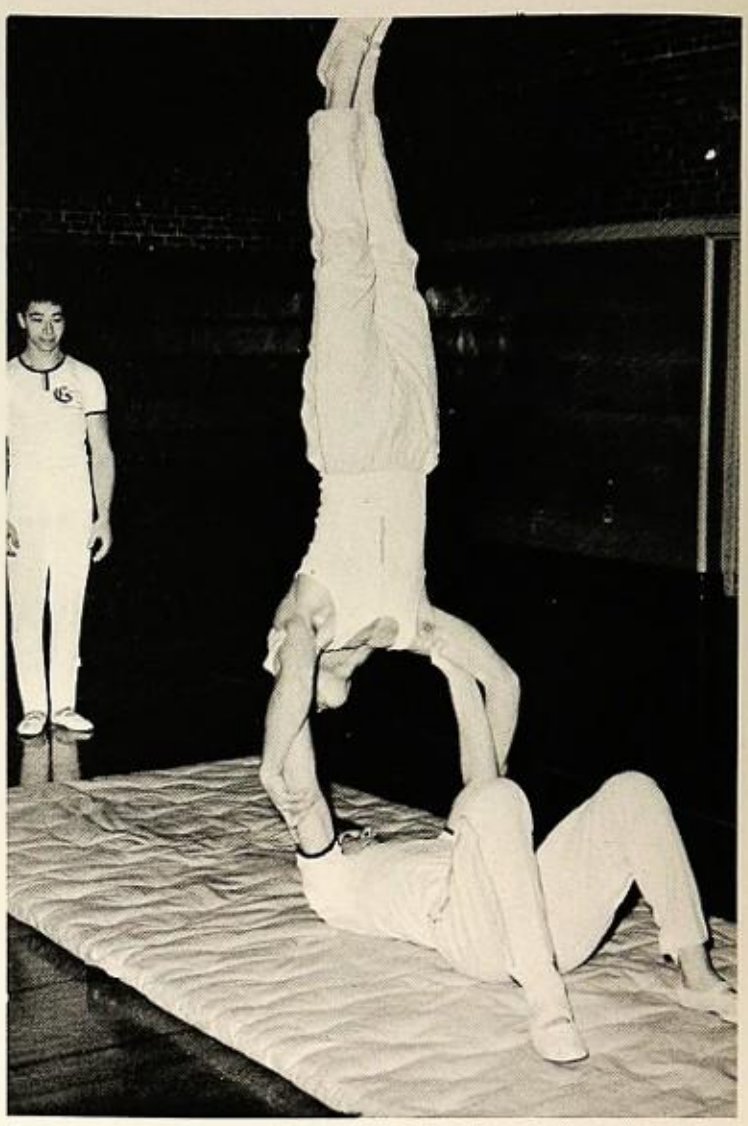


Boys compete in eight games. Members of the first place team are awarded trophies at the annual awards assembly.

The captains of the intramural teams are (seated) Fran Maineri, Keith Barber, Jim Lasek, (standing) Bill Colite, Jim Paradis, Phil Renn, Pete Mongillo and (missing) Howie Guilder.

Boys' Gymnastic Club

The Boys' Gymnastic Club, one of the newest clubs to come to Southington High School, is also one of the most popular. The chief purpose of the club is to encourage self-confidence and to learn basic and advanced gymnastic skills. However in the coming years it will give Southington High School a new dimension in athletic competition. Mr. Nakoneczny, advisor of the Boys' Gymnastic Club, has definite plans for this newly developed organization. He expects the club to perform at basketball games, and also enter in state competition. The Gymnastic Club is an excellent credit to Southington High School.



Fran Manieri and John Landino perform a difficult stunt as Gary Castro looks on.

Girls' Gymnastic Club

Boys often visit the Girls' Gymnastic Club meetings to observe their skills and agility in gymnastic stunts.

Tremendous growth of interest in physical fitness during the past decade has sparked new enthusiasm in the gymnastic field. Here at Southington High the Girls' Gymnastic Club has been instituted. Under the supervision of Mrs. Geraldine Dahlberg, the girls not only learn to perfect their gymnastic skills, but also they acquire many of the benefits of gymnastic participation. They gain a knowledge of rhythm in movement and a feeling of achievement from mastering the skills of free exercise and tumbling.

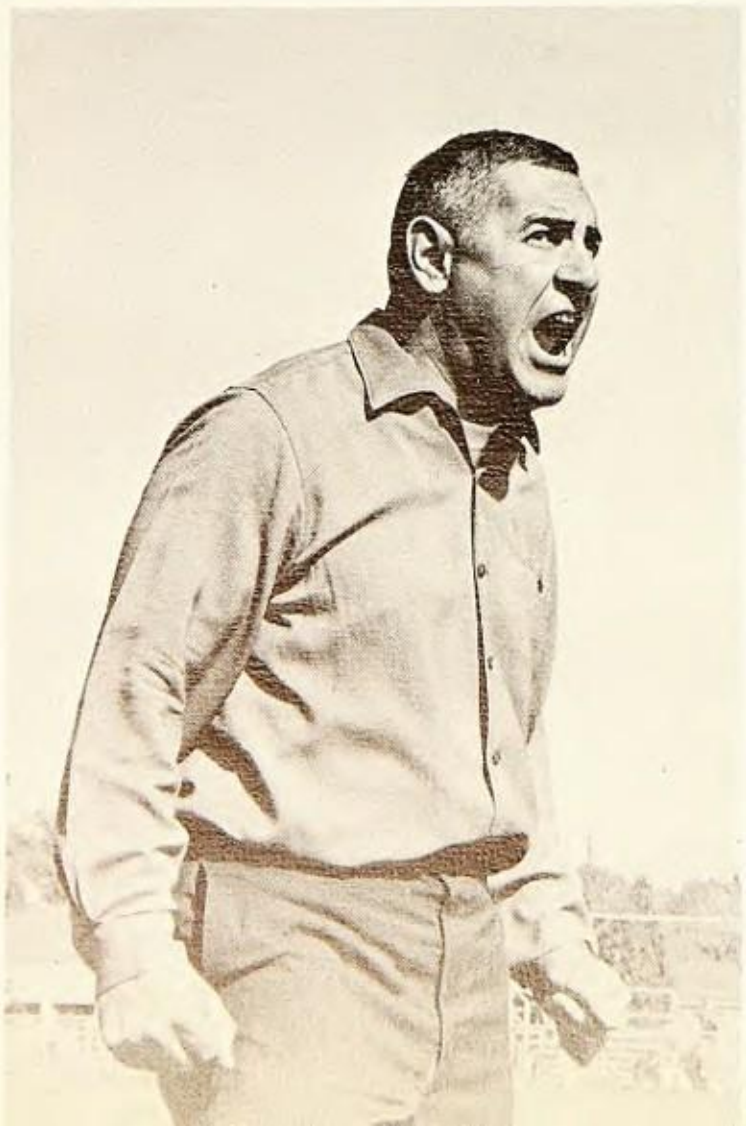
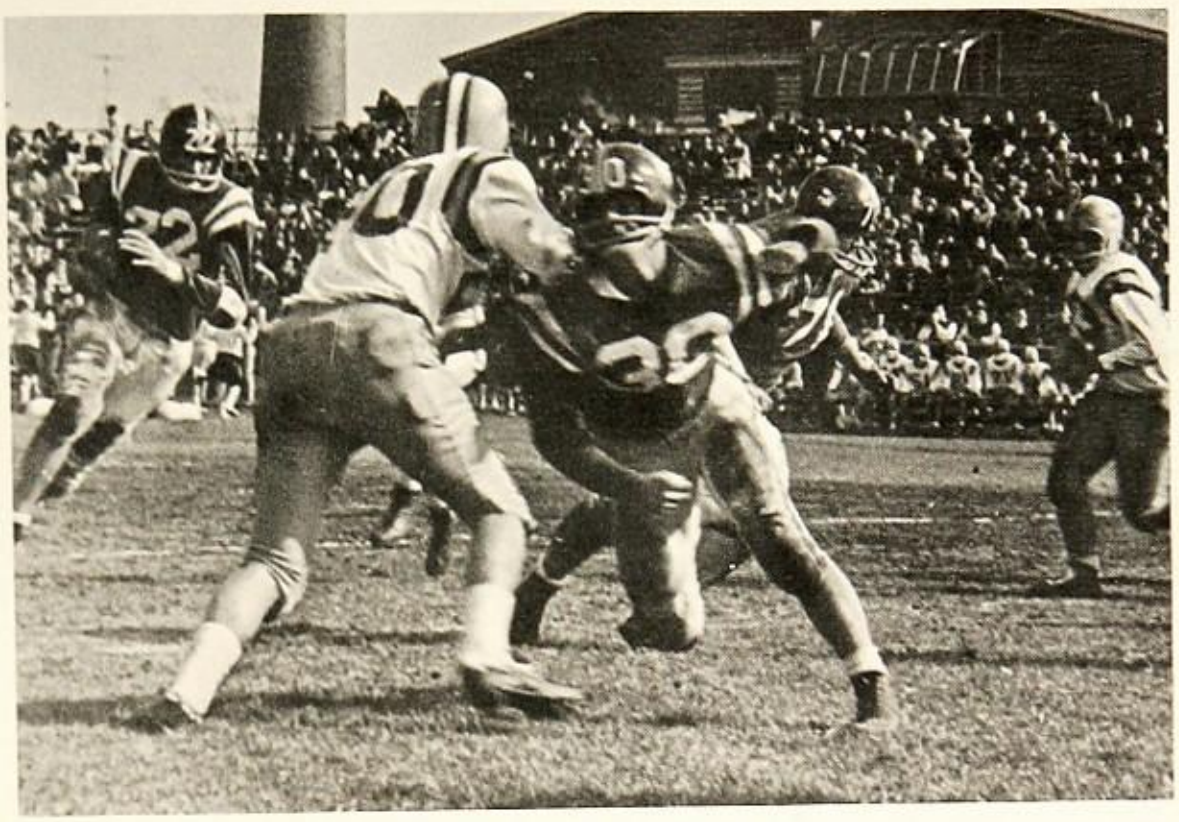
Knights Go Undefeated for Third

"Out loud!" yells coach Orsene as he sights a flaw in the Knights' defense.



Bill Colite skillfully pulls in a pass in the Pulaski victory.

"Oh when the Knights . . . "



Pete Sepko throws a block to an off-guard Hamden player as Vinnie Clements goes around the end for extra yardage.

Straight Season

Southington's powerful football machine fought its way to another undefeated season. This, the third consecutive year in which the S.H.S. footballers failed to taste defeat, saw a new record of twenty-nine straight wins.

The Knights started slowly, losing to Bristol Central in the practice jamboree. This only spurred the players on, as they easily defeated all successive opponents, usually by wide margins. The biggest victories were a 22-6 upset over Pulaski, handing powerful Hamden a 22-12 loss, and of course the Planiville victory of 38-18.

Southington's fine football season did not go unnoticed, as the team was honored to be one of three Class A teams to win the C.I.A.C. Merit Award.

The Knights were not only outstanding as a team, but individually as well. Pete Mongillo and Ralph Churchill, two big tackles, set a fine example as co-captains. Pete was selected to the All State Team, the All League Team, and was invited to play in the Nutmeg Bowl Game for outstanding high school seniors. Ralph was named to the All State second team and also the All League Team. Fullback John Landino showed strong running power and was likewise honored by being chosen to the All League Team. Junior halfback Vin Clements was outstanding in capturing the state scoring title and being named to the All State and All League Teams.

Perhaps the most outstanding individual of all was head coach Joe Orsene, chosen coach of the year. In his five years as Southington High football coach, Mr. Orsene has compiled an enviable 43-2-1 record, the best in all New England!

Co-captain Pete Mongillo and quarterback Roper team up to pull down Hamden's halfback, Tom McDermott.

Led by nine seniors, Coach Phil Goodrow's cross country team compiled an enviable 10-2 record for the team's second consecutive successful season. The Harriers won their last nine meets to take second place in the C.V.C., then placed second in the Class A Eastern Sectionals, and eighth in the State A Open Meet.

The team was led this year by co-captains Don Van and Al Chute. A new home course record of 12:24 was set by Al Chute on our 2.65 mile course. Chute also set a record at Lyman Hall in Wallingford. The team's biggest victories were thrilling shutouts over Woodrow Wilson and Middletown and a victory against Plainville High School on their home course, a feat never before accomplished.

Dave "Cat" Jankowski pulls down a rebound against player Pope in the Middletown game.

The Blue Knights this year compiled an admirable 18-2 seasons record to clinch the C.V.C. title, and then went on to climb to the semi-final round in the C.I.A.C. tournaments.

The team's formula for success was its ability to function as a team unit. Individual honors however, went to Greg O'Connell who was named to the C.I.A.C. All Tourney Team, as well as to the C.V.C. All League Team. Also named to the All League Team were John Seabury and Vin Clements.

Track Team Looks

The 1966 track team has the greatest potential of any track team ever at S.H.S. Fifteen lettermen are returning and it appears certain that the team will improve last year's 8-3 record. Coach Nakoneczny is counting heavily on the talented members of the class of 1966 who last year, as juniors, tallied 397 points as compared to 261 points for the other classes combined.

Among the returning cindermen are 440 record-holder John Landino and high jump record-holder Dan Parcell. Coach Nakoneczny expects at least two more records to fall this year as the team appears strong in nearly every event.

Captain John Landino races across the finish line for another first in the 440.

Pole vaulter Jim Lasek, captain, goes up and over as teammate Dan Ossorio provides encouragement.

Al Chute and Floyd Gollnick are ahead in the half-mile event against Glastonbury.

Fontana's Nine Look Foward to

Coach John Fontana's 1966 baseball team is looking forward to another successful season. The loss due to graduation will be a great setback for the Knights but Coach Fontana still feels optimistic and hopes to match or surpass last year's 12-5 record.

Position wise Coach Fontana feels he has a lot of ability coming up from last year's junior varsity and freshmen teams. Although the batting leadership was dominated by last years seniors, Coach Fontana expects some fine hitters to develop by the season's start. Pitching is the only position lacking the depth of last year's speed. Only under varsity pressure will Coach Fontana be sure of his team's ability.

A tense moment, a good coach.

Golf Team Seeks 2nd State Honors

In 1965 Southington High's golf team compiled a perfect 9-0 record and won its third consecutive C.V.C. crown. In the State Championship held at Race Brook Country Club in Orange, Connecticut, on June 7, the squad came out on top by a one stroke victory over Wethersfield High. In the championship, the linkmen set a new scoring record with a 309 total for four men.

This year's team, to be led by co-captains Bruce and Kevin Reid, will be given solid support by last year's fine jayvee team. Coach Lozoski expects a very successful season in 1966, and the team won't let him down.

Sophomores Win Talent Show,

Junior students "boozed it up" in their frolicking skit.

Lou Lappert, senior, provided entertainment with enjoyable folk singing.

Francine Sabatino, senior, seemed to enjoy her acting as much as everyone else.

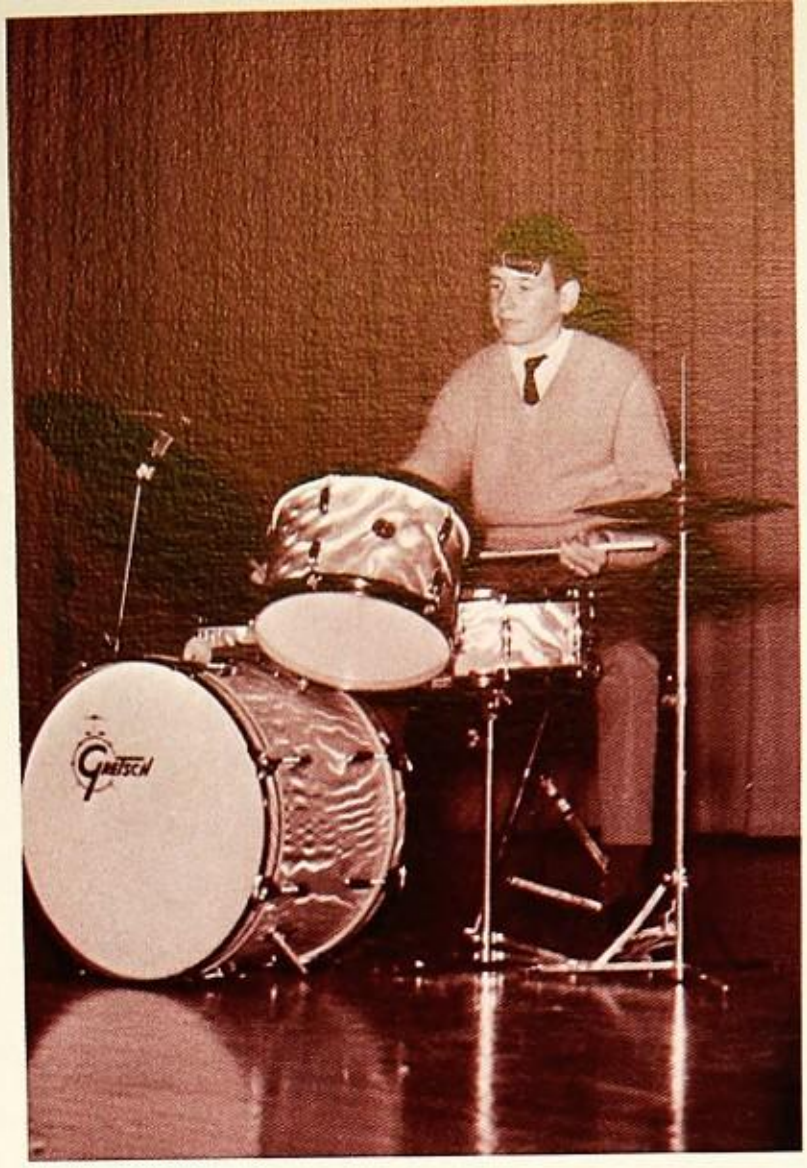
Don Martin First Prize

The Talent Show at Southington High School is an annual affair which is eagerly awaited by the student body. The Talent Show is sponsored by the Emblem and was first staged in 1957. Its main functions now, as then, are to provide students with a medium for demonstrating their talents and also to raise money for the classes.

Each class has four or five acts to represent it in the show. The proficiency of the acts is graded on a point basis by a panel of judges selected by the Emblem. Their decisions are announced shortly after the last act of the show. The class whose acts amass the largest number of points is declared the winner of the Talent Show. To this class goes the largest share of the profits from the show. In addition, the class which sells the largest percentage of tickets, prior to the night of the show, also receives a percentage of the profits.

The acts of the Talent Show are many and varied. This year's audience saw singers, dancers, comedians, impressionists, musicians, and group comedy sketches; all of which made the Talent Show a most enjoyable event. The three winning acts were Donald Martin with a drum solo; a combo consisting of Bob Decaro, Mike Giamatteo, Tom Santoni, Harvey Ricard and Quentin Kapke; and Alys Osborne with an organ solo. The Sophomore class placed first, followed by the seniors and then the juniors.

In addition to being an excellent way to obtain money for class treasuries, the Talent Show is a fine opportunity for individuals to assert themselves for their own benefit. Many times really fine talent has been viewed on Talent Show night. But whether the talent is hit making or not the Talent Show at Southington High is one of the most popular events of the school year.



Don Martin, sophomore, won first prize with his excellent drum solo.

Pat Cessario Crowned Homecoming Queen

Pat Cessario, 1965–'66 Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming weekend at Southington High School is one of the biggest events of the school year. Started seven years ago, Homecoming has grown to be the social highlight of the fall.

The festivities begin on Friday night with a pep rally and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. On Saturday the Queen and her court lead a parade through town to the football field where the Blue Knights do battle in the annual Homecoming Game.

After the Knights' triumph a victory dance is held Saturday night. With the victory dance a wonderful and busy Homecoming weekend is drawn to a close for another year.

Homecoming 1965 was held on the weekend of October 23. On Friday night the candidates for Queen, escorted by members of the football team, were presented at the pep rally. Ray Angelo, emcee of the event, announced the members of the court as Gail Stepensky, Pamela Stetson, Doreen Spain, and Susan Guarino. He then announced Pat Cessario as the 1965 Homecoming Queen. Pat was escorted to the throne, and crowned by last year's queen Doreen Standish.

On Saturday a huge crowd gathered for the parade and football game. During the halftime the Queen and her court rode onto the field where they were greeted with cheers and applause. The Knights, in keeping with tradition didn't let anyone down as they defeated Middletown High School 28-6 to ensure a successful Homecoming.

The exciting weekend of activities came to a close Saturday night with the victory dance. The beautiful Queen and her court, the victorious Blue Knights, and the enthusiastic and happy students and alumni all combined to make Homecoming 1965 a truly unforgettable weekend.

The majorettes were only part of the spirited parade.

Susan Josephson Receives DAR Award

Each year an outstanding girl at Southington High is chosen to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Award. This year it was presented on January 27, 1966, to Susan Josephson, of the class of 1966.

Mrs. Markley, Chairman of the D.A.R. Good Citizens committee, is shown here presenting the award. Sue received the honor on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Youth Day Trial

Each year for the past several years, the Moose Club of Southington has sponsored Youth Day, held this year on October 29, 1965. On Youth Day several students from Southington High are invited to assume offices in our town government, and town officials work with their student counterparts. It is one of the few opportunities which students have to gain first-hand experience and appreciation of the operation and responsibilities of our local government. Indeed, Youth Day promotes good citizenship as well as pride in our community.

Bob Smith, President of the Student Council, acted as First Selectman. Serving under him were: Randy Garry, Secretary to the Selectman; John Landino, Town Clerk; Sue Josephson, Assistant Town Clerk; Melissa Derby, Assessor's Clerk; Jim Lasek, Building Inspector; Mike Giammatteo, Tax Collector; Ron Chase, Finance Officer; and Greg O'Connell, Dog Warden. Serving on the Police Force were Dave Jankowski, Police Chief, and Roger Berube, Policeman. In the Fire Department, Fred Pelletier assumed the responsibilities of Fire Chief, while Pete Anderson was his Fireman.

At noon a dinner was held at the Moose Lodge for all those who participated in and organized Youth Day. Governor of the Moose, Mr. Joseph R. Bourassa, who was main speaker at the dinner, presented certificates to the students.

After the dinner, the final event of Youth Day, a mock trial, was held at the Town Hall. The Judge was Larry Mucci, Ralph Churchill, Prosecuting Attorney, and the defendant was Pete Mongillo, who was charged with selling Senior Class secrets to the Junior Class. His attorney was Ralph Passarelli and Bill Colite acted as Clerk of the Court. The audience at the trial roared its approval as the defendant was found not guilty. Thus the rewarding activities of Youth Day came to a close.

Selectman Bob Smith (right), and Secretary Randy Garry receive the verdict over the phone.

The Junior Prom: "Enchanted Forest"

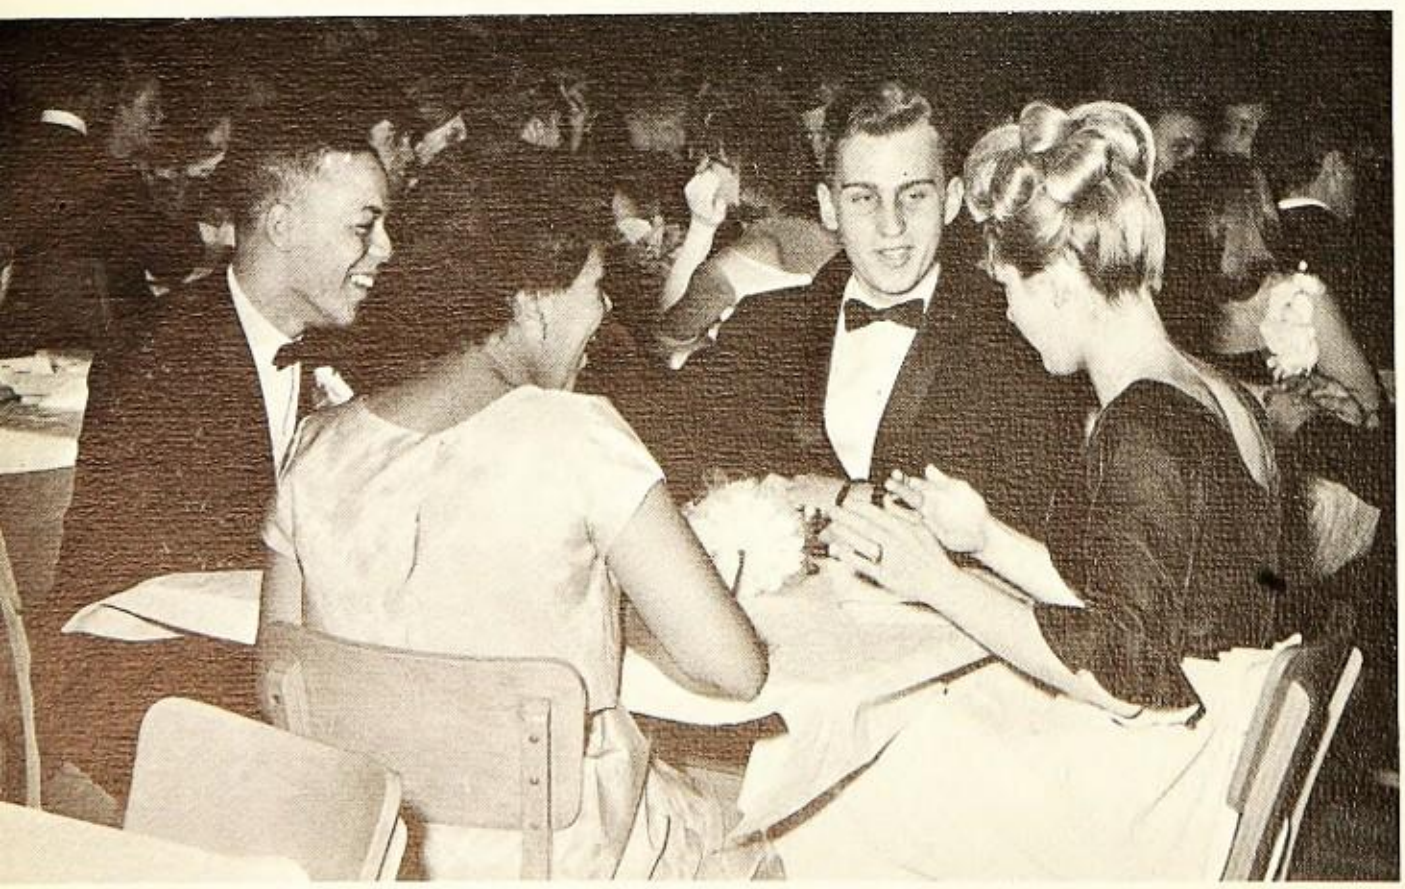
King and Queen, Vinnie Clements and Sue Benjamin, led the dance following their coronation.

Saturday, November 6, 1965 is a date long to be remembered by most members of the class of 1967. This was the night of the Junior Prom, "Enchanted Forest."

The high school gymnasium became a place of beauty and serenity as the "Enchanted Forest" took shape. A quiet pond and a tree-surrounded meadow were first to be seen by the couples. In the distance stood a majestic castle, peacefully overlooking the scene. Hostesses dressed as pixies, and wishing wells as center pieces rounded the decorations.

Following refreshments in the cafeteria came the highlight of the evening: the coronation. Co-chairmen Chris Brennan and Donna Gregoretti drew the name and Vinnie Clements and Susan Benjamin were crowned king and queen.

After an enjoyable dinner 153 couples went home with pleasant thoughts of a memorable evening.



Couples were provided with ample seating space while not dancing.

Slept Here"

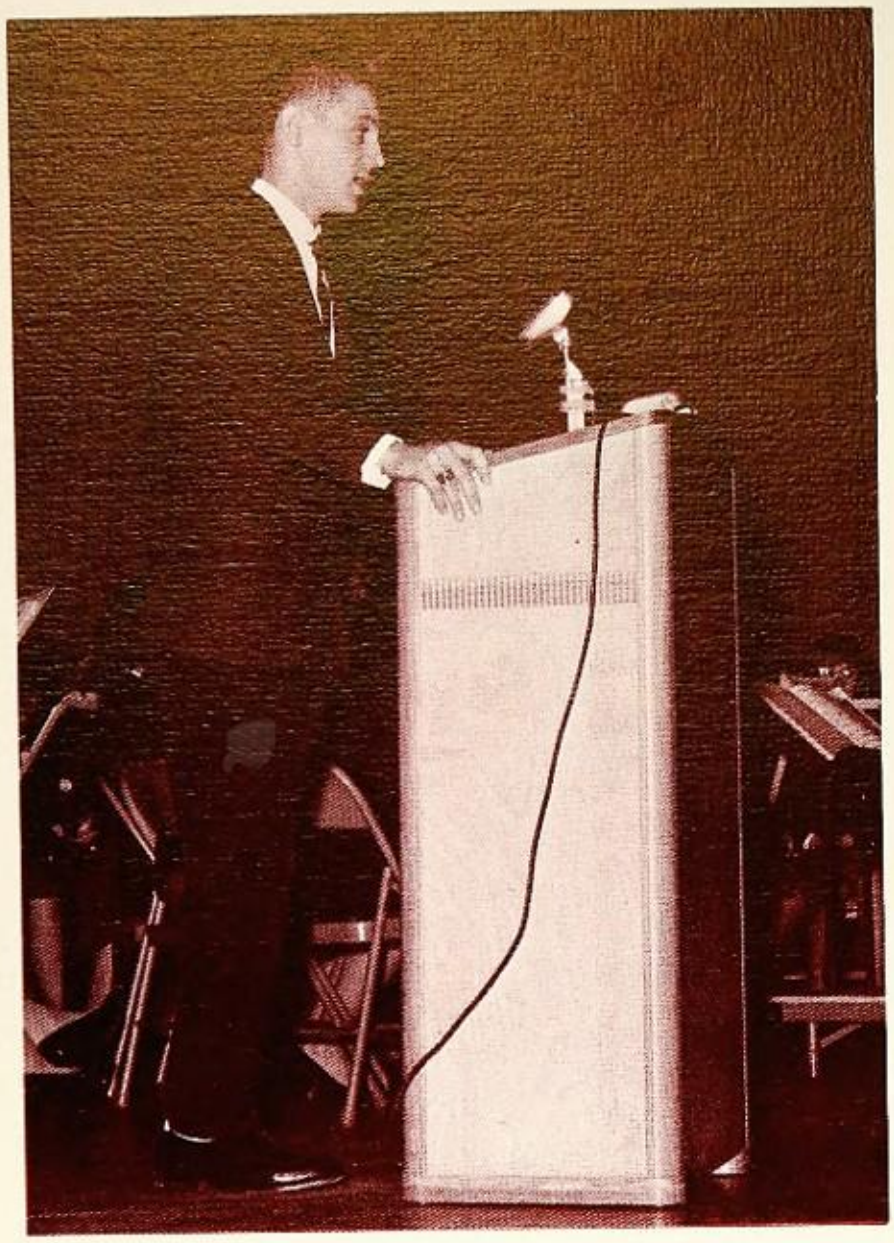
Friday evening, November 19, 1965, brought a sense of pride and achievement to the Class of 1966, as the Senior Play, "George Washington Slept Here" was produced in the High School auditorium.

The comedy concerned a hen-pecked Newton Fuller who purchased a crumbling colonial farmhouse without his wife's knowledge. Jim Moran and Antoinette Denerfia were excellent as the quiet husband and the outspoken wife. The troubles they have changing from city life to country life are only made worse as they are "blessed" with a rather playful twenty-two year old daughter, Deidre Plourde, who runs away with an actor, and a monster of a nephew, Danny Ossorio. Their ferocious neighbor, Lester Ruth, adds to the hilarious agony as he demands, rent "or else." Yet all turns out for the best in the end, as happiness is restored.

All players portrayed their characters with excellence and realism and well deserved the strong ovation which they received following the play. Mr. Giallello, who directed the play, and co-chairmen Bob Baumer and Marianne Knapp are also congratulated for their fine job.

After a drink or two, everything turned out just fine.

Robert Mals Wins Junior Recital With Dramatic



Robert Mals won the Junior Recital with his timely speech on the Viet Nam Crisis.

Some years ago, an alumni group that wished to further the interest of students in public speaking established the Junior Recital. In addition to the honor of winning the competition, the best speaker of the junior class was to receive a cash prize. The success of this contest has become evident over the years. The enthusiasm of the students has made it one of the most beneficial and widely supported academic endeavors in our school.

The year 1966 was no different than any other year concerning the Junior Recital. After careful consideration, Mrs. Diane Edwards, Mrs. Patricia Patrick, and Miss Barbara Rondinara, the three junior English teachers, selected the six competitors: Linda Bass, Rudolph Cabata, Barry Egan, Dorothy Goggin, Robert Mals, and Joseph Olszewski.

After many days of rehearsal, these six students delivered their speeches at a special assembly. The favorable reaction of the audience reflected the careful preparation which had gone into their presentations. After thoughtful deliberation, the judges named Robert Mals the winner for his timely speech in support of America's policy in Viet Nam.

Much of the success of the recital is due to the efforts of advisors (left to right) Mrs. Diane Edwards, Miss Patricia Patrick, and Miss Barbara Rondinara.

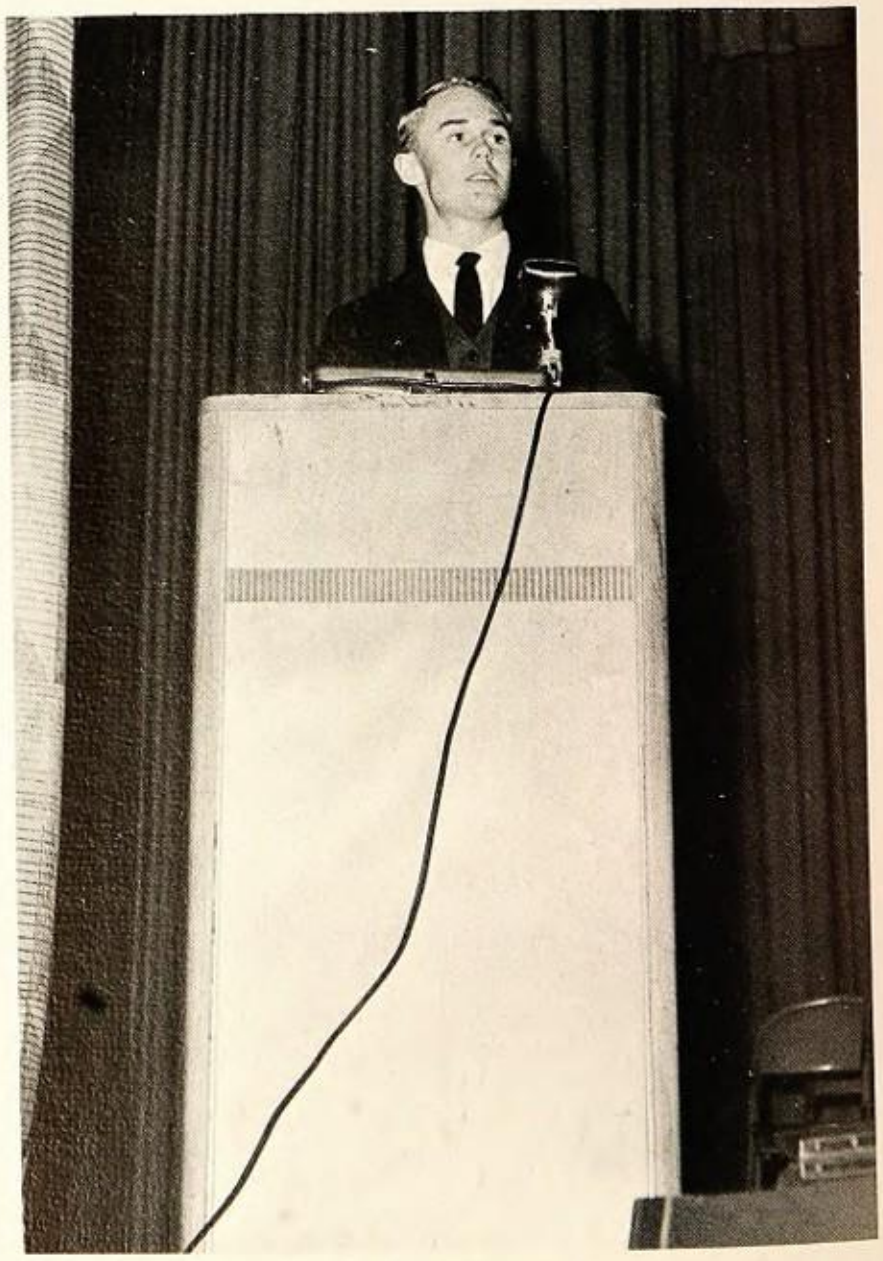
Guest speaker at the assembly was Mr. Arthur O'Brasky.



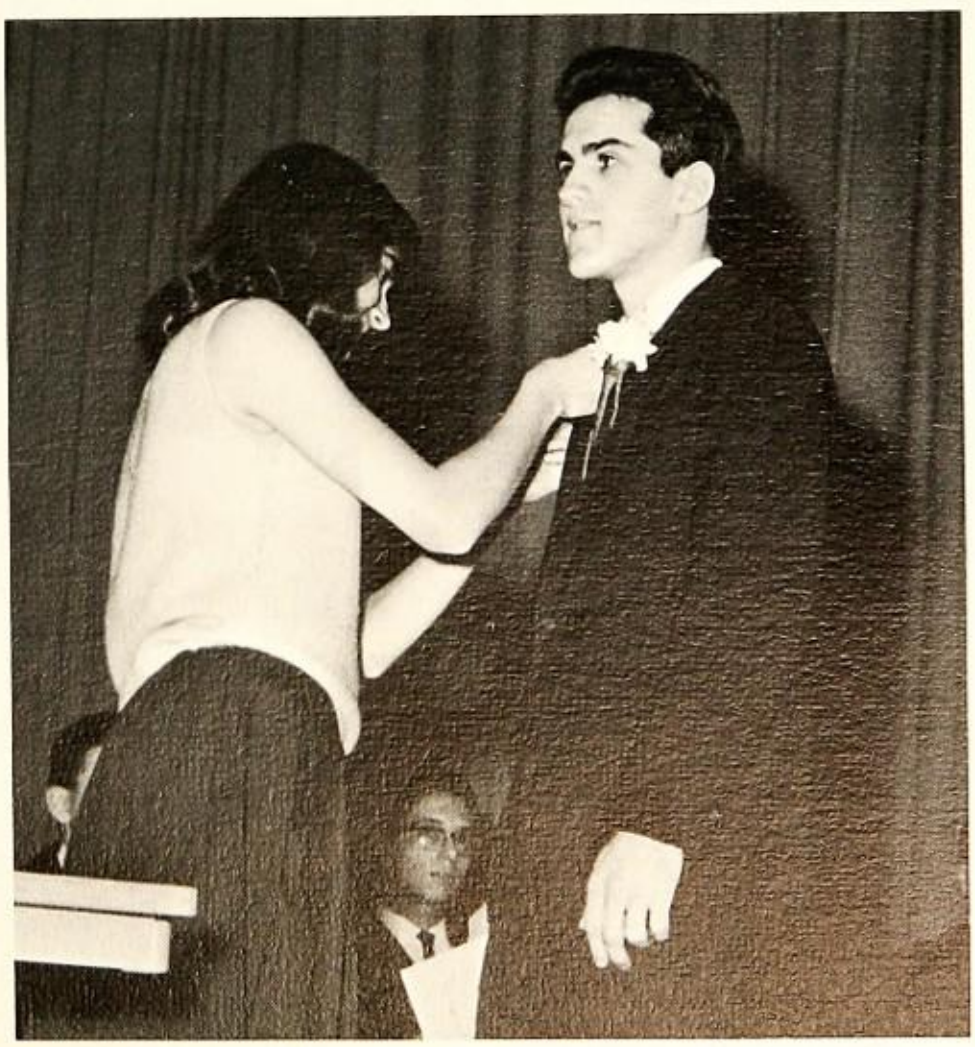
Pete Anderson, N.H.S. president, calls the new members.

New Members

On Wednesday, February 9, 1966, thirty-eight members of the Class of 1967 and eleven members of the Class of 1966 were officially inducted into the Southington Chapter of the National Honor Society. The chairman of the induction was N.H.S. President Peter Anderson, who gave a short speech about the history, emblems and principles of the Honor Society. Mr. Arthur O'Brasky, a former teacher at Southington High and present principal of Beecher Street School, then presented a moving speech concerning the values of education.

Next the names of the new members were announced and they were ushered to the stage. After having received flowers, certificates, pins, and membership cards, the proud inductees repeated the National Honor Society Pledge and became full-fledged members of the Society. The assembly then closed with Mr. D'Angelo's remarks to the new members and guests.

"Congratulations," says Jackie Rabatin as she presents inductee Patty D'Angelo with a carnation.



Carol Dudac pins inductee William Dudzik.

Chronicle 1966

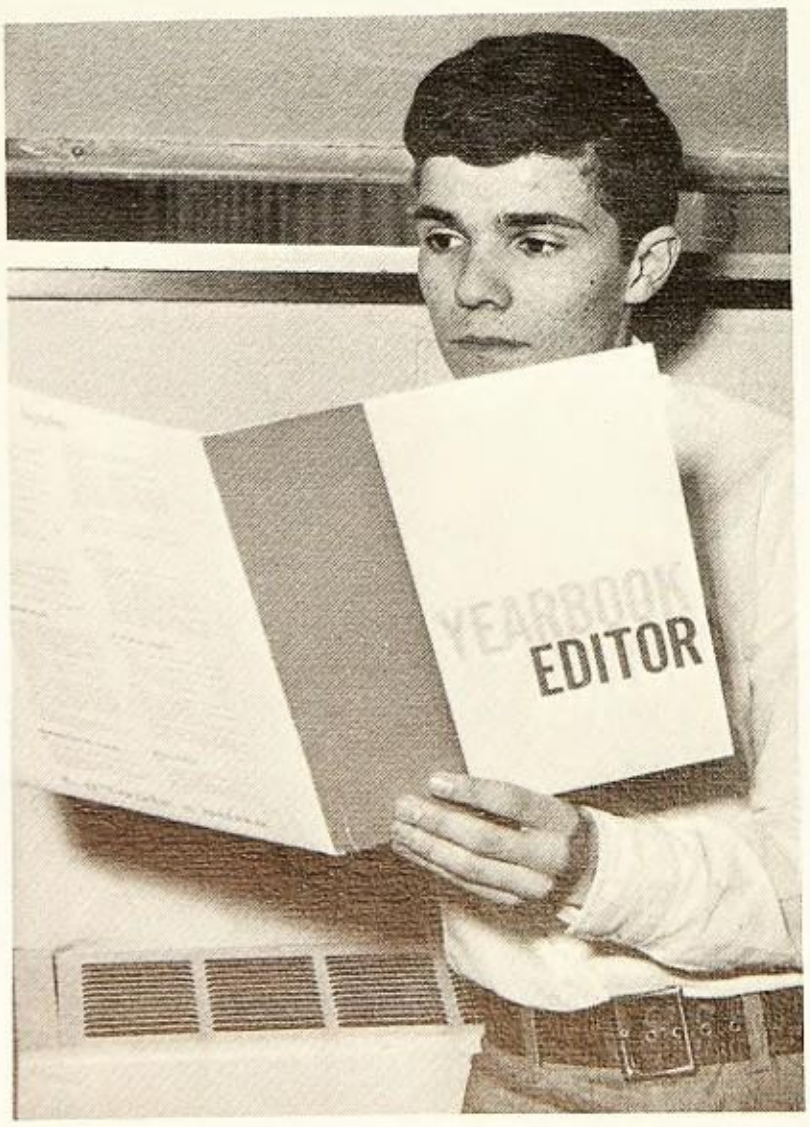
In the last few years, the Chronicle has undergone a major change in format. It has been executed almost fully in Chronicle 1966 and is that of a yearbook evolving from a classbook.

Traditionalism, which had been the strongest element in most of the past Chronicles, kept its main emphasis on the graduating class, ignoring almost completely the other classes, which are as much a part of the school as the seniors. In 1964, the first major break in fifty one years modified this tradition. The standard features of class prophecies, polls, statistics, and wills were abandoned.

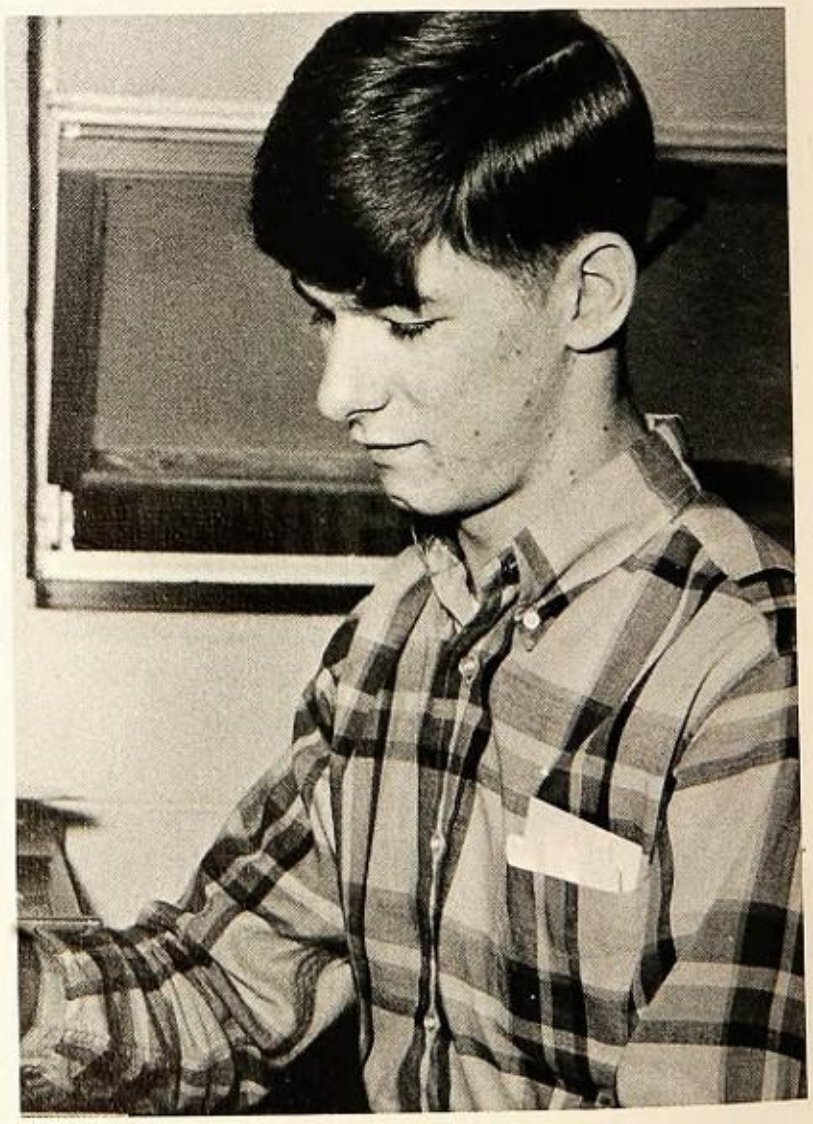
We have tried to give the Chronicle a new twist, while at the same time keeping it a complete record of all the year's events. It has recorded the progress made during 1965-66 of the faculty, the student body, the athletic teams, clubs and other organizations.

Still, a major part in the progress made in the year is the graduating class. To accommodate this aspect, the seniors have had complete coverage of their history and activities; yet, the senior section has been simplified, giving more attention to individual pictures. Candid shots of teachers and those of the students throughout the book have given it a more natural and direct style.

Chronicle 1966 represents the extended efforts of its editors and staff; it is the best of other yearbooks without their mistakes; and it is through a sincere attempt on the part of the authors that the events and people in the past year have been chronicled with novelty and good taste.



Co-editor Joe Freire goes over plans for the new Feature section.



Co-editor Randy Garry is busy organizing the files for the 1966 Chronicle.

Autographs

Ann,
To a terrific girl
who will always be successful and have fun.
Have fun this summer and don't let anyone drown.
See ya next year

Aggie

Ann,
I don't believe the year is over! It's been a hell of a lot of ben knowing you. Hope we'll remain as good friends in the future. See you next year(?).

Yours,

Autographs

Ann,
To quite a kid who is always filled with surprises. Keep up those A's and you'll get through College yet. Always remember Mr. Pinter & his Peanuts and lovable Mr. Goyzo. I think you have just left a lasting impression with your best act in Geometry class. Have fun this summer and good luck with everything you attempt.
Love
Debby

Ann, I hope you enjoyed Europe. To a real good kid with a real great personality. Stay just the way you are and you will go far in life - Walter Humphries
Love, Steve

Ann,
I hear a different drummer, but this music is intriguing, too. There are many things not to be understood; many things not worth understanding, and some who don't care.
Love,
Dori

I'm
To a nice kid with those swinging parties. The first one was great. Too bad I was sick at the other. Good luck in the future and remember Band.
Pat "68"

Ann
To a great person who I know
will always remember and like. Remember the enlightning biology classes that we managed to live through. Love,
Barb.

Ann
To a great girl,
Remember all the bad
times we had in band.
(also the fun). Best of luck to you in the Future
Phil

Ann, you're a real swell kid, with a great personality. Remember future teachers and especially the trip to Ocean Beach. Good Luck
and may God Bless you always. Love ya,

Ann,
Keep using those brains
and you'll go far.
Remember Pom's
room and ~~Ronald~~ ~~Bio~~ biology dissecting stuff.

Tommy.

P.S. don't forget to send your address so I can send you a real good friend who is going to be far. Have fun in autumn years at B.N.S.

Love,

Ron

Ann "68"

To the cutists

Soph. I know. I hope you succeed in everything else you do. Your future years already do. Hope your future years at S.H.S. are as good as all the rest of the years you spent here. Be good like always & enjoy yourself. Everyone will like you, everyone will enjoy your company

Bonnie

Dear Bonnie,

Thanks a lot for the card. I'm sure we'll have a good time (maybe not necessarily) at camp. Don't worry about me, I'll be fine. Have a great summer & don't do anything I wouldn't do. Hope you have a good time at camp & I'll see you when I get back.

Love,

Debbie '68

Ann,

To a real nice girl.
Always remember all those parties everybody had. (Fun!)
Well I know everybody has wished you the traditional God Bless you and good luck so I want to be original God luck and God Bless you always.

Love & Luck

Ann,
I'm sure glad we could have had a real good time together. Hope you have much success in all your endeavors in the future. Keep smiling.

Ann -

So a real good kid who I'm jealous of because you get better marks from
Conrad than I ever did -

Always remember
Robin (!), and the many others -

See you at Sloper's
this summer.

Love,
Tina

Ann:

To one of the nicest kids I know and had the chance to meet this year. Remember all the parties and the good times we've had. Good luck in what ever you do and may God Bless you.

always
